Note.—The Year ended 31st December 1855, being Five working days shorter than the corresponding period in the previous year, £. 1,512,755 might be added to the Total of the Enumerated Articles, and £. 1,095,275 to the Total of all Articles, for the probable Exports of the five days not included in 1855. These additions would make the respective Totals £. 83,698,353 and £. 97,364,655, instead of £. 84,185,598 and £. 95,669,380, which appear in this Account.

The Quantities and Amounts of Value inserted in the foregoing Account for the year 1854 (ended 5th January 1855), do not exactly correspond with those which would result from a mere incorporation of the Twelve Monthly Returns rendered successively within the year, the sums now exhibited having undergone a final revision and correction on the making up of the registry for the annual period. The quantities and amounts inserted for the year 1855 (ended 31st December), on the other hand, are liable to future alterations when the process of revision just referred to shall have been accomplished.

A change has been, this month, introduced into the Returns of Shipping. The variations in the employment of Shipping have been recorded in the Return of the Vessels, of each Nation, entering in and clearing from, the United Kingdom, but no Return has hitherto been given to indicate the increase or decrease in the intercourse between the United Kingdom and particular countries. A Return is now added, to show the Number and Tonnage of Vessels (with cargoes) entered from, and cleared to, the principal foreign countries and British possessions. This Return will indicate the direction of our trade, and will not be without interest in connexion with the Accounts of Imports and Exports. In the Return of the Vessels of each Nation trading with the United Kingdom, Sailing and Steam Vessels are no longer distinguished. The distinction swelled the Return inconveniently, and it was not of much practical value for monthly periods. Sailing and Steam Vessels will still be separately specified in the Annual Shipping Returns.

TRADE OF THE UNITED KINGDOM.

AN ACCOUNT of the NUMBER and TONNAGE of VESSELS which Entered Inwards and Cleared Outwards with Cargoes (including their repeated Voyages) from and to various Countries, during the Month ended 31st January 1856.

* In 1846 the prohibitory duty on foreign sugar was also reduced, but as the expected result was an increase of revenue to the estimated amount of £416,562, and not an estimated loss of revenue, as is the case in the other reductions of duty in this return, it is not specified above.

† Estimate when in full operation. The estimate for the first year was 500,000l.

‡ Portion of stamp duty lost by the repeal of the Act which made the stamp compulsory, allowing the sum of 50,000l. a year for the addition to the Post Office Revenue for unstamped newspapers sent with postage stamps.

Note.—This Return, prepared by the Registrar General of Seamen, cannot be given for earlier years. It includes Channel Islands Vessels, but not those of the British Plantations.

The Home Trade signifies on the Coasts of the United Kingdom, or to Ports between the limits of the River Elbe and Brest.

The Foreign Trade signifies to Ports beyond such limits.

No Foreign-going Vessel is included which has not been so reported within four years, and no Home Trade Vessel which has not been reported within one year. It is possible that some Vessels may be included which have ceased to exist, or are no longer employed as British Vessels, but every endeavour is made to ascertain and strike off such Vessels.

With respect to the Crews, a very small deduction ought to be made for the case of men who join a fresh ship immediately on their discharge from the former one, which happens to remain in Port.

Board of Trade, }
30 June 1856. }

EDGAR A. BOWRING,
Registrar.

Coal Exchange, 18 June 1856.

THE undermentioned, being coal owners, ship owners, coal merchants, and coal factors, residing in London, Northumberland, and Durham, have now the honour to submit to the Board of Trade the following statement of the measures they propose to take for establishing an office for the registration, regulation, and hire of coalwhippers.

They propose to select from their number a committee of seven or more, to superintend the office, to engage convenient premises and clerks, and to settle the rules under which the business shall be conducted.

The rules shall be agreed upon after consultation with the coalwhippers, who will be invited to depute members of their body to consult with the committee on the subject. As far as found practicable, the rules of the existing coalwhippers' office will be adopted, and alterations introduced as experience may indicate them to be improvements.

Deferring the preparation of the rules, the committee will, however, at once point out the following as, in their opinion, desirable changes in the existing rules.

That no man, not already on the present register, known to be of bad character, shall be registered by the office; and that any man may be struck off the register for dishonesty or misconduct, disqualifying him, in the opinion of the committee, for employment.

That, instead of the present mode of forming the gangs or working parties, the men shall be invited to present themselves in gangs, according as they may find it convenient and advantageous to combine for the purpose, the basketmen or foremen, appointed as at present by the office, being held responsible for the fitness for labour of the men in their gangs. The practice of the present office, which the undermentioned think objectionable, is, to form each gang of so many from three classes into which they divide the body of coalwhippers, of different degrees of efficiency, for the work. The undermentioned think that the interests of the public and of the men themselves would be consulted by their being allowed to select their own associates in labour.

Wages shall in no case be paid at a public-house, but either on board the ship discharged, or at the office; the deduction from wages for the support of the office not to exceed one farthing in the shilling, unless a larger deduction shall hereafter be agreed upon by the men for the creation of a benevolent fund.

The undermentioned annex copies of Resolutions (No. 1 and 2), passed by the committee of the coal trade of Northumberland and Durham, containing the authority on which their names are appended to this memorial.

These Resolutions contain, it will be seen, a distinct undertaking on the part of the whole trade to support the proposed office, and to furnish funds necessary for its establishment.

They refer to a Resolution from the Shipowners' Society of Sunderland, already in the office of the Board of Trade, pledging themselves to support the office, and to discourage the hiring of men at public-houses.

This Society will be represented on the committee to be formed.

The undermentioned do not doubt the success of the office they undertake to establish, supported as it will be by the funds and influence of the coal trade. They think there is no reason to doubt that the coalwhippers will, when the question of the Bill now before Parliament is disposed of, cordially lend their aid to the new office; which will be more economically conducted than the present, that is to say, at less charge to the men than the present office would, if continued, have to make; and which will, it is hoped, arrest the rapid decline of employment proved by a recent Return to be going on.

The undermentioned annex a copy of a letter (No. 3) from the coalwhippers, the result of a meeting held by them on this subject; and respectfully leave it to the Board of Trade to determine if it contains any reasons of weight against the proposed office.

The meters' committee (which it was mentioned at the interview with the President and Vice-President of the Board of Trade, with which some of the undermentioned were honoured, would probably undertake the duty of managing the proposed office), after some meetings on the subject, finally declined the task. Copies of the Resolution of a sub-committee (No. 4) appointed to consider the subject, and of their Report (No. 5), are annexed.

They were not adopted by the general committee, which was equally divided on the subject.

GENERAL COMMITTEE, 14 June 1856.

Henry Morton, Esq., in the Chair.

THE letters of the Hon. H. G. Liddell, M.P., and of John Forster, Esq., M.P., relative to the establishment in London of a coalwhippers' office, to be partly assisted and controlled by the coal trade, having been read ;

It was Resolved,—

1. That in the opinion of this meeting the Coalwhippers Act is objectionable in principle, and ought not, under any circumstances, to receive the sanction of the Legislature.

2. That the coal owners are prepared to give their support to the establishment of an office, which would efficiently and economically conduct the business of the coalwhippers, and facilitate their obtaining employment.

3. That such office ought to be self-supporting, and the expense which may be incurred for the management of the office met by a deduction from the charges made for the delivery of the ship.

4. That the coal owners are willing to guarantee, to the extent of 500 l., the expenses that may in the first instance have to be incurred in the establishment of such office.

5. That the undermentioned gentlemen form a committee, to co-operate with the committee already appointed in London, for the purpose of arranging and settling the details of the proposed new system.

GENERAL COMMITTEE MEETING.

Present :—Hugh Taylor, Esq., in the chair; Messrs. Robert Anderson, R. P. Philipson, Thomas Wood, Henry Morton, Robert Plummer, Thomas John Taylor, Nicholas Wood, and James Morrison.

JOHN FORSTER, Esq., M.P., attended the committee, and stated, that on Thursday next the advocates of a voluntary coalwhippers' office are to assure the Board of Trade that they are prepared to go on with the voluntary system, as proposed, and that sufficient funds are guaranteed.

Resolved,—

1. That, in reference to this subject, the committee reiterate the opinion which they have before expressed, that the Coalwhippers' Bill is objectionable in principle, and ought not, under any circumstances, to receive the sanction of Parliament; and that they strongly feel it is most unjust to interfere in any manner with the labour market, by compelling the coal owner to employ members of a particular class—a course which has not been adopted with regard to any trade in the kingdom, and which cannot be applied to any without the most dangerous consequences.

2. That Mr. Forster be requested to assure the Board of Trade, when the intended interview shall take place, that the coal trade committee for the counties of Northumberland and Durham pledge themselves, on their own behalf, and on behalf of such as are not present to-day, to promote and encourage the proposed voluntary office; and in furtherance thereof guarantee the sum of 500*l.* to meet the expenses that may be incurred, it being distinctly understood that the contemplated office is to be self-supporting, and to be so conducted as to secure to the coalwhippers the opportunity of independently obtaining employment.

3. That the above be forwarded to Mr. Forster, with the expressed opinion of the committee of the trade, that in any committee of management of the proposed office the coal trade of these two counties should, if the entire number be seven, nominate four, and so on in a like ratio, in case the number of such committee shall be greater than seven.

(signed) Hugh Taylor, Chairman.

(No. 3.)

Gentlemen,

Coalwhippers' Office, 13 June 1856.

WE take the earliest opportunity of informing you that the promise made to you by the men's committee has been fulfilled.

A public meeting of the registered coalwhippers was convened and held last night, at which we, as their committee, laid before them the views and suggestions made by you in reference to the practicability of forming an office for coalwhippers without the powers of an Act of Parliament; we take the liberty of saying, that your views were fairly and fully explained to them by us, and those views were thoroughly canvassed. We give you the result of our deliberations in the words of the 1st Resolution, which was unanimously passed, and which was as follows :

"That whilst the delay which has arisen in passing the Bill for the continuance of the Coalwhippers' Office has occasioned the greatest anxiety to your committee and to us all, it has nevertheless given an opportunity to the friends and opponents of the office to make such inquiries and investigations as to convince nearly all parties of the impracticability of carrying out any plan for an office without the power of an Act of Parliament."

In conclusion, we beg to thank you for the courteous manner in which we were received by you; but inasmuch as your project for a new office (as explained by yourselves) can only be carried out by an exclusion of a large majority of our fellow-workmen from any participation of the labour to be done hereafter should your office be established, and a monopoly would thereby be created (which would be soon crushed by the unemployed men), such as the Government office with an unlimited registration never exercised or pretended to; and finally, seeing that your plan affords no security to the men against the return to the unjust extortions of the old system,—

We respectfully submit that any further interview with you as a sub-committee would only tend to retard the progress of our Bill through Parliament, and would be alike injurious to the interests of the trade and of the registered coalwhippers.

We are, &c.

(Signed on behalf of the Committee)

To the Sub-Committee of Factors and Coal Merchants.

(signed) John Farrow.

(No. 4.)

Coal Exchange, 13 June 1856.

Resolved,—THAT in the event of the Coalwhippers Bill being thrown out, this committee are of opinion that an office might be established to protect the men from the publicans, by an amalgamation of the principal interests engaged in the coal trade; viz., coal owners, ship owners, coal factors, and merchants; and that such an office would be much more likely to be successful if managed by a committee composed of gentlemen from these four branches of the trade, than it would be if under the exclusive management of the coal meters' committee.

(No. 5.)

REPORT of the SELECT COMMITTEE on the COALWHIPPERS ACT.

YOUR Committee have to report that, in pursuance of the Resolution by which they were appointed, they have held several meetings, during which the subject committed to them has received all the attention due to its importance.

In the first place, Your Committee considered that it was exceedingly desirable to ascertain the opinion of the body of coalwhippers at present working under the Act of Parliament on the proposed scheme of organising an office for them without an Act.

For this purpose, Your Committee sought and obtained through the Chairman of the Coalwhippers' Office, a conference with a deputation from the coalwhippers, consisting of five of their number, all of whom appeared to Your Committee deserving of great respect for their intelligence and good conduct.

At that conference Your Committee put several questions to the deputation, as shown more at length in Appendix, No. 2; the answers to which manifested a strong bias in favour of the Act of Parliament, induced by their dread of a relapse into the public-house system of hiring. Your Committee endeavoured to divert the minds of the deputation from that strong bias, and elicited a unanimous opinion that, in the event of the Bill being withdrawn, then the whippers would gladly resort to an officer organised by the trade; indeed, they went so far as to state that they would prefer very much that the present office, if continued under the Act of Parliament, should be placed under the exclusive management of the trade, instead of its present constitution. They were sensible that many disadvantages to themselves and the trade arose out of the appointment of Commissioners, so little acquainted with the practical part of the business. But the deputation wished it to be understood that they were speaking only their individual sentiments. Whereupon it was arranged that the deputation should communicate to the body of coalwhippers what had passed, and afterwards forward to Your Committee the result in writing. By that result the Committee were made acquainted, in a manner that precluded all further consultations, that the body of whippers still considered any plan for carrying on the office without the power of an Act of Parliament was impracticable.

Your Committee felt that it was of the first importance to study convenience and interest of the trade by preventing any tendency to strike, by removing all prejudice, if possible, from the minds of the whippers, so as to afford no grounds for a strike, but rather to conciliate their good-will and ensure their concurrence in any scheme which Your Committee might have to present to your consideration; but in the absence of that advantage, it became a question with Your Committee whether a departure from the original intention was not advisable. It was clear, also, that Your Committee could not be unanimous on any scheme, although a majority in favour of a scheme was probable, and it was discussed whether the desired object might not be more easily obtained by an amalgamation of the several branches of the trade, by which means a separate committee might be formed to carry on a Whippers' Office, consisting of fit and proper persons representing the coal owners, ship owners, coal factors, and merchants; and after full and anxious deliberation on this view of the question, Your Committee came to the following Resolution (see No. 4).

Your Committee abstain from entering more at large into the merits of this new matter, being careful to avoid the introduction of any responsibility on the coalmasters' committee, either in regard to the withdrawal of the Bill before Parliament, or in the establishment of another office; but, considering the close affinity which subsists between the business of coalmasters and coalwhippers, they would recommend that in the event of the Coalwhippers Act not being renewed, it should be a matter of immediate consideration how far the convenience of the trade can be promoted by the assistance of the Coalmasters' Office, by sending representatives to the suggested coalwhippers' committee, or by any other means which will not be prejudicial to existing interests.

New City Chambers,
30 June 1856.

My dear Sir,

I REGRET that a fair copy of the enclosed was not prepared for signature at Newcastle; an apology for the state in which it reaches your hands is due.

Three or four names, not of the largest coal owners, which were affixed to the former memorial, are not to this. The gentlemen were absent from Newcastle, I presume, for I know no other reason, and three or four new names appear. All those on which stress was laid will be found on the present paper.

The Right Hon. Robert Lowe, M. P.

I am, &c.
(signed) J. Forster.

London Coal Exchange, 30 June 1856.

THE undersigned desire to explain that, by the engagement to establish an office for the registration, regulation, and hire of coalwhippers, supported by the funds and influence of the coal trade, given in the memorial to the Board of Trade, dated 18th of this month, they intended to promise, and now do promise, to give to that office a preference in the hire of such labour as they are at present compelled to engage at the existing office; they hope that the coalwhippers will, on their part, so support the new office, and so conduct themselves, that the preference and good-will which the undersigned now engage shall be given to it at its outset will be secured permanently to it by the advantages it will afford to all parties.

The undersigned engage in no case to allow those under their control or influence to hire or pay coalwhippers at public-houses or through publicans, and, to the utmost of their power, to discourage such a practice.

If those for whom this engagement is made do not observe it, and the coalwhippers in consequence again fall into the hands of the publicans, the undersigned will not resist the renewal of legislation on the subject.

MINERALS.

RETURN to an Address of the Honourable The House of Commons, dated 12 June 1856;—for,

A “RETURN of the Quantities of Coal, Iron Ore, Copper Ore, Lead Ore, Tin Ore, Silver, Zinc Ores, Salt and other Minerals, raised in each of the MINING COUNTIES of the UNITED KINGDOM, for the Years 1854 and 1855 respectively.”

Mining Record Office,
Museum of Practical Geology, Jermyn-street,
30 June 1856.

Sir,

IN compliance with your directions, I beg to present the following return of the quantities of coal, iron, copper ore, lead ore, tin ore, silver, zinc ores, salt, and other minerals, raised in each of the mining counties of the United Kingdom, for the years 1854 and 1855 respectively.

It is necessary to explain that there is no authority compelling either the owners of collieries or of mines to render any return of their produce.

The Mining Record Office, in obtaining statistical information respecting the mineral produce of the United Kingdom, has, therefore, to rely, in most cases, on the disposition of the mineral proprietors to furnish it. The returns which have been published for some years by this office having been considered of much value by those engaged in the mineral industries of the kingdom, much of the difficulty which formerly existed in obtaining information has been removed.

The statistics of coals and iron have been obtained by visiting the coal and iron producing districts, and by issuing circulars of inquiry. The replies given to these applications, whether personal or otherwise, have been full and satisfactory. The information thus obtained has been corrected by ascertaining the quantities exported and carried by railway and canal from each district; and by computing, after careful inquiries made on the spot, the local consumption. In all cases the railway companies have given to this office exact returns of their mineral traffic.

The published sales of copper ore in Cornwall and at Swansea have furnished the bulk of the returns; but the private contract purchases have been supplied by the smelters, or the proprietors of the copper mines from which the ore has been sold.

For the returns of tin ore, the office is indebted to the smelters of tin in Cornwall, and to the agents of the mines producing that ore.

The amount of lead ore has been obtained by means of the public sales at Holywell, and from returns which are now promptly made, upon application, each year from the proprietors of the lead mines. The lead smelters also furnish very full information; and from the assays of the ores thus obtained, the yield of silver has been computed.

With regard to zinc ores, salt, and other minerals, the inquiries into the production of which were commenced last year only, the returns are not so complete as those of the more important mineral products. The quantities given have been communicated by persons largely interested in those respective branches of mineral industry.

Sir Roderick I. Murchison,
&c. &c. &c.

I have, &c.
(signed) Robert Hunt,
Keeper of Mining Records.

In 1854 the quantities of zinc ores produced were obtainable with difficulty, and being usually sold in small parcels, it was in some cases impossible to arrive at the entire produce. The returns for 1855 are far more complete; but, from the increasing importance of zinc ores in this country, the above must still be considered as the minimum produce.

MUSEUM OF PRACTICAL GEOLOGY.

RETURN to an Address of the Honourable The House of Commons, dated 21 May 1856;—for,

A "COPY of CORRESPONDENCE between the Director-General of the Geological Survey and the President of the Board of Trade and the Council of Education, relative to annexing a MUSEUM of PRACTICAL GEOLOGY to the Department of Arts and Sciences."

Department of Science and Art, Marlborough House, 27 May 1856.

Sir,

I AM directed by the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade to transmit to you, in compliance with the resolution of the House of Commons, copies of the Correspondence between the Director-General of the Geological Survey and the President of the Board of Trade, relative to the transfer of the Museum to the Education Department.

My Lords presume it is this correspondence to which the resolution refers, as there has been none relative "to annexing a Museum of Practical Geology to the Department of Arts and Sciences."

W. N. Massey, Esq., M.P.

I have, &c.
(signed) Lyon Playfair.

Geological Survey Office, Jermyn-street,
25 January 1856.

My Lord,

HAVING heard that Her Majesty's Government proposes to remove the Department of Science and Art, at present under the control of the Board of Trade, to the office of the Minister of the Crown who may be charged with the education of the people; I beg to be permitted to place on record a few observations on the effect which such a change may produce upon the establishment in Jermyn-street, as consisting of the Geological Survey of the United Kingdom and its affiliated School of Mines and illustrative Museum.

Impressed with the great value of the scheme of bringing science and art to bear upon the productive industry of the country, and anxiously desirous, as well as every professor in this establishment, to aid zealously in so good a cause, I have to request that the following statement may be considered as an exposition of the views entertained by my associates and myself.

I will first recall to your Lordship's notice, briefly, the origin of this establishment and the objects which it was destined to accomplish by the additions which were made to it; and having shown that all other states, seeking to develop their mineral wealth, have analogous institutions, attention will be drawn to the following points.

Firstly. What real benefits will be derived from our establishment, if it be duly encouraged as a higher school of mines?

Secondly. What may result, if it be rendered subordinate to the system of the general education of the country?

It is wholly unnecessary to comment upon the desirableness of a complete geological survey of the British Isles, as first established at the suggestion of my lamented predecessor, Sir Henry De la Beche, which has now been successfully in action for nearly 20 years, and which, whilst it affords the most important information respecting the composition of the sub-soil, has been considered by all persons eminent in geological and mining science, to have been conducted with surpassing skill.

This survey, which is the base of the whole establishment, has its analogue in most civilised lands, and the country void of it must remain ignorant of that knowledge of the crust of the earth which is indispensable in every effort to promote the material interest of man. Acting on this principle, each government of the Great American Republic has its state geologist, just as the continental Governments of Europe have colleges and schools specially adapted to the instruction of miners, the chief and active officers of which construct the geological maps of their respective regions.

The object, therefore, of my predecessor was to induce the British Government and Parliament to emulate other countries, by adding to the survey an illustrative museum and a school of mines; so that England, which, through the spirit and enterprise of individuals, had already taken a prominent lead in geological science, and had seen her own insular names rendered classical throughout the scientific world, might also possess a central school for sound instruction, not only in geology, mining and mineralogy, but also in the essentially connected sciences of natural history, chemistry, metallurgy, mechanics and physics.

The effects which have resulted from our teaching have been beneficially felt both at home and through the most distant regions, inasmuch as our school has already afforded geological and mining surveyors to many of our colonies in the East Indies, Australia, and the Cape; whilst at this moment the legislature and governments of the West Indies are petitioning for mineral surveyors of their respective islands, and Her Majesty's Government joining, as I am happy to say, in this enlightened and liberal movement, have applied to me to recommend suitable persons for such employments.

In relation to Britain, I may be permitted here to suggest, that the encouragement which is now offered to our school of mines might at once receive considerable stimulus by a declaration on the part of Her Majesty's Government, that no one of the 12 inspectors of coal mines, each receiving a salary of 400 l. per annum, should be appointed, who had not undergone the preliminary studies which our institution affords. If such and other encouragements were held out abroad as well as at home, and if every person appointed by the Crown to all such offices should first either obtain good certificates after studying in our school, or at all events pass a satisfactory examination at it, the number of our pupils would doubtless augment rapidly. Just as scholarships, fellowships, livings and all the higher offices of state and law, are the real attractions which have hitherto filled the ancient universities, so would the public then see that a beneficial career was open to youths through the study of the sciences which we teach.

A really encouraging move, one which has produced the best effects upon our students, has indeed been made in this direction through the enlightened views of His Royal Highness Prince Albert, who, acting for His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, as Duke of Cornwall, presented to our establishment two scholarships of the annual value of 30 l. each.

Even in our present condition, nearly 100 officers of Her Majesty's or the Honourable East India Company's services have spontaneously taken advantage of our scientific instruction, which they know will give them advantages in foreign lands; instruction too, which they obtain with us, at half the usual charges, and which cannot be had elsewhere in this country.

Nor let it be supposed that, in any case where a young man is really desirous to gain knowledge, he is not adequately taught; inasmuch as every one of our professors acts both as teacher and examiner, and takes upon himself the tutorial responsibility of ascertaining that he has truly imbued his pupil with sound knowledge.

A striking proof of the interest attached to the useful instruction afforded by our institution is also given by the presence of 600 working men who attend the courses of evening lectures delivered gratuitously by our professors; the tickets being so sought after, that they are applied for and distributed within five hours from the commencement of their issue.

That the publication of the "Memoirs of the Geological Survey" have an important influence, is evident from the fact that, whenever they refer to districts charged with mineral wealth, their publication is speedily exhausted and new editions called for. In alluding to the utility of these publications I beg specially to call attention to a volume about to be issued by our Metallurgical gical Professor, Dr. Percy, viz., the "Analyses of British Iron Ores." As these results have been obtained in our laboratory and involved in their investigation the elaborate analyses of all the British iron ores of commercial value, in number amounting to more than 100 varieties, and occupying the time of two chemists incessantly during a period of nearly three years, they prove the extent to which we have been preparing to meet the rivalry of foreign countries, by that close scientific research, the spreading results of which among our industrial population can alone enable us to maintain our present position as the chief manufacturing country in the world*.

Putting aside the consideration of those branches of our studies, the successful cultivation of which is not so obvious to the mass of mankind, but without which no scientific education can be complete, I now pass from the working of our establishment in its present relations to the Government, to notice certain impediments to our success as a national scientific establishment, which may arise, if our body should, by a change of relations, be governed by the same influences as those which are likely to prevail in the general management of the education of the people.

Liberal as the minister may be under whose control the general education of the nation may be placed, there is little doubt that in this country the greater number of its instructors will be drawn from among such of the graduates of the ancient universities, as, both by their training and position must be, to a great extent, disqualified from assigning their due importance to the practical branches of science. Such persons may be eminent in scholarship and abstract science, and yet ignorant of the fact that the continued prosperity of their country absolutely depends upon the diffusion of scientific knowledge among its masses. They may, with the most sincere and earnest intention, not only fail to advance, but even exercise a retarding influence on such diffusion, and may object to a course of study which, as now pursued, is irrespective of religious teaching. Experience has shown in how sickly a manner practical science is allowed to raise its head under the direction of those persons whose pursuits are alien to it; whilst in every land, where it has had due support, the greatest benefits have resulted.

Placed as the geological survey and its affiliated branches now are, in subordination to the Board of Trade, they are continually aiding in the development of an amount of mineral wealth far exceeding that of any other country, and, in this wholesome and important action, the movements of our body are not only unfettered, but are likely to receive all that encouragement which seems alone to be wanted to enable this establishment to be eminently useful in instructing that class of persons who will materially augment the productive industry and trade of Great Britain.

I have thus taken the liberty of offering to your Lordship, as the Member of Her Majesty's Government under whom I serve, my view of a subject upon which I have long thought; and have only now to request that, in giving it your best attention, you will submit this letter to Her Majesty's Government, and particularly to the consideration of the Minister who may be destined to be charged with the education of the country.

Marlborough House, 10 May 1856.

Sir,

I AM directed by the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 25th January. That letter, until it was moved for in the House of Commons, had been treated as a private communication addressed to the President of the Board for his information, and

* See Mr. J. Kenyon Blackwell's Paper on the Present Position of the Iron Industry of Great Britain, with reference to that of other Countries, read at the Society of Arts, Wednesday, 9 January 1856, p. 121 of the Journal.

and had been transmitted by his Lordship to the Lord President of the Council, previously to the transfer of the Department of Science and Art to the Education Department. For these reasons an official answer has not hitherto been sent.

Without entering upon any objections which you have urged to the transfer in question, I am instructed to inform you that the Department of Science and Art will be placed under the management of the Lord President of the Council, on the same footing as it has hitherto been under the President of the Board of Trade.

Under these circumstances Her Majesty's Government will continue to have the full benefit of the services of your institution, which remaining under the Department of Science and Art, as it has hitherto been since it was transferred to the Board of Trade, will receive the same encouragement and support which, in your judgment, have been productive of so much benefit already.

Concurring with you in the belief that the great value of the Museum and the School under your direction consists in its ability to afford sound instruction in the applied sciences, their Lordships are convinced that any Minister, entrusted by Her Majesty with the charge of education, will anxiously endeavour to promote and to give fuller development to the instruction afforded by the professors of the school.

REPORT of the BOARD of TRADE on the RAILWAY and CANAL BILLS of 1856.

THE Number of Bills for RAILWAYS in Great Britain deposited this Session amount to 91.

Of this number, 65 authorise new works.

There is also a Bill entitled the Driffield Navigation (Repeal and Consolidation, &c.) Bill, which may to some extent be considered a Canal Bill, and should therefore be alluded to in this Report. The Navigation is vested in Commissioners, and the Bill consolidates their Acts, authorises new works, and alters the tolls.

The proposed new works to be authorised by the 65 before-mentioned Bills, may be classed as follows:—

BY NEW COMPANIES.

	NUMBER OF BILLS.	LENGTH OF LINE.
England - - - -	26	146 miles.
Scotland - - - -	12	262 „
Ireland - - - -	1	65 „
TOTAL - - -	39	473 miles.

BY EXISTING COMPANIES.

	NUMBER OF BILLS.	LENGTH OF LINE.
England - - - -	20	174 miles.
Scotland - - - -	4	11 „
Ireland - - - -	2	18 „
TOTAL - - -	26	203 miles.

The total length of New Lines is, therefore, 676 miles, and there are in addition 42 miles of Deviation and 14 projects for Enlargements of Stations, &c.

These Bills may be further classified as follows :—

BILLS BY WHICH THE INTERESTS OF MORE THAN ONE COMPANY ARE AFFECTED.

I.

*Bills by which the Interests of more than one Company
are affected.*

Under this head are comprised 59 Bills.

7 Bills confer power of amalgamation, sale, lease, &c.

26 Bills authorise one Company to subscribe to the undertaking of another Company.

9 Bills confer running powers.

48 Bills sanction working and traffic agreements.

As regards the provisions in these several Bills, my Lords would call the attention of the General Committee on Railway and Canal Bills to the recommendations on this subject by the Select Committee of the House of Commons of the Session of 1853 upon Railway and Canal Bills, which are numbered 5 and 6, at pages 20 and 21 of the Fifth Report, viz. :

“ 5. That working arrangements between different Companies for the regulation of traffic and the division of profits should be sanctioned, under proper conditions, and for limited periods; but that amalgamation of Companies should not be sanctioned, except in minor or special cases, where it clearly appears to the Standing Committee that the true and only object of such amalgamation is improved economy of management, and consequent advantage to the public.

Amalgamations and Working Arrangements.

“ 6. That running powers should generally be discouraged on the score of danger, and conceded only in cases where the public object of free transit from one system to another cannot practically be ensured by other means.

Running Powers.

My Lords would also observe, that the necessity there may formerly have been for allowing running powers may be assumed to be now, to some extent, obviated by the Traffic Regulation Act of 1854, 17 & 18 Vict. c. 31, which obliges Railway Companies to afford all reasonable facilities for the transmission on their line of traffic passing from and to lines in connexion with their Railway.

In their Report of last Session, my Lords observed, that “ If the General Committee shall agree in the foregoing resolutions, it will remain for them to determine, in the case of working agreements being sanctioned between two Companies, what are in each case the proper conditions to be imposed, and the proper duration of the agreements.

“ In sanctioning working arrangements involving division of profit between different Companies, two things seem important to be considered; viz. :

“ 1. That the arrangement shall not prejudice the general interest.

“ 2. That it shall not be, in its nature and terms, unfair between the contracting Companies.

“ As regards this latter point, it appears to my Lords that if the Committee take such measures as appear to them necessary, in order to ensure that the well-advised and carefully considered and matured assent of the shareholders themselves has been given to the arrangements, the best means will have been taken for securing the interests of each party. Such arrangements do not appear to be included in the terms of the Standing Order of the House of Lords (No. 185), and are therefore more especially necessary to be considered by the Committee of the House of Commons. The Order in question might, however, be easily adapted to the present purpose by introducing the words, “ Bills empowering any Company to enter into working arrangements or other combination of interest with any other Company.”

My Lords would further observe, that the Bills which contain powers for the Companies to enter into working arrangements as a general rule limit the periods periods for which those arrangements are to be entered into to 10 years, which appears to be consistent with the object which the Select Committee of 1853, on Railway and Canal Bills, had in view in the following passage, of insuring that it should be treated as a working arrangement only, and not as a virtual amalgamation; viz.:

I.
*Bills by which the Interests of more

“But if working arrangements not now valid in law shall be sanctioned by Parliament, under definite conditions and for limited periods, capable of being renewed by the same authority when approaching the term of their existence, it will be in the power of the companies to contract alliances useful for the conduct of traffic, while it will be open for Parliament to interfere for the prevention of permanent public mischief.”

Many of the Bills contain a clause empowering the Companies to renew the agreements at the expiration of the period for which they have been granted, with the approval of the Board of Trade. This would appear to be in accordance with the suggestions which My Lords made in the Report of last Session, viz.:

“If the Committee should be of opinion that sufficient security would be afforded by substituting the ratification of the Board of Trade for the more costly process of a renewed application to Parliament by the Companies who desire at its conclusion to extend the term of any such agreement, My Lords are of opinion that a clause might properly be inserted for that purpose.”

The Bills of the class at present under consideration generally contain a clause providing that the arrangements between the Companies shall not alter, affect, increase, or diminish the tolls and charges they are authorised by their Acts to demand from other parties. In order to ensure an observance by the Companies of the Parliamentary limitation of the maximum charges in their dealings with the public, it might be advisable to require the insertion of this clause in all Railway Bills by which working or traffic arrangements are proposed to be authorised.

It appears to my Lords to deserve the consideration of the Committee, whether the provisions in the several Bills, as well as those requiring Companies to afford facilities for the transmission over their lines of the traffic of other lines, as those sanctioning working arrangements, might not usefully be made of a more uniform character; those provisions which on consideration are deemed to be best adapted for securing the object intended, being adopted in all bills of the same class.

1.—POWERS OF AMALGAMATION, SALE, LEASE, &c.

THERE are Seven Bills which are classed under this head.

POWERS OF AMALGAMATION, SALE OR LEASE EXCLUSIVELY.

Under this Sub-division there are two Bills in Scotland, both of which relate to the Aberdeen Railway Company.

Amalgamation,
Sale, Lease, &c.

The first, viz., the Aberdeen and Scottish Midland Junction Railway Companies' Amalgamation Bill amalgamates the Aberdeen Railway Company with the Scottish Midland Junction Railway Company, under the name of the Perth and Aberdeen Railway Company. Under an Act of a former Session these Companies are worked jointly with the Scottish Central Railway Company. The present length of the Aberdeen Railway is 74 miles, and the Scottish Midland Junction Railway 38 miles.

The second Bill would also vest the Dundee and Arbroath Railway, by means of a lease in perpetuity, in the Aberdeen and Scottish Midland Junction Railway Company jointly, or if the former Bill should pass, in the Amalgamated Company.

By these Bills, the east coast of Scotland between Perth and Aberdeen would be placed in the hands of one Company.

The Edinburgh, Perth, and Dundee Railway joins the Dundee and Arbroath Railway at Broughty Ferry. It may be a question whether the interests of the

I.

• Amalgamation,
 Sale, Lease, &c.

Aberdeen and Scottish Midland Junction Railway Companies will be such as to induce them to develop the traffic, and to accommodate the public on the Dundee and Arbroath Railway, to the same extent as has been the case during the time that the line has been in the hands of an independent company. If, therefore, this amalgamation be allowed, it appears desirable that a power of regulating these matters should be reserved to some authority independent of the companies.

One or two branch lines proposed in connection with these lines will be noticed in another place.

And the following relates to Railways in England :

The North Staffordshire Railway Bill would authorise that Company to purchase or take on lease the Warrington and Stockport Railway, and the St. Helen's Canal and Railway, or to amalgamate with either or both of these Companies.

There are three other Bills promoted by this Company, which, although properly appertaining to other sub-divisions, it appears desirable to mention here; viz., 1st. The North Staffordshire Railway (Sandbach to Warrington) Bill, for an extension of the North Staffordshire Railway from Sandbach to the Birkenhead, Lancashire and Cheshire Junction Railway at Moore; 2d. The Moore and Warrington Railway Bill for a Railway from Moore, to join the Warrington and Stockport Railway at Warrington; and 3dly, The North Staffordshire Railway (Liverpool Extension) Bill, for a new railway from the St. Helen's Railway at Garston into Liverpool. These Bills specify 10 years as the time to be allowed for the completion of the works.

By the first of these three Bills, viz., The North Staffordshire Railway (Sandbach to Warrington) Bill, the Company will be empowered to run over the Birkenhead, Lancashire and Cheshire Junction Railway, the Manchester South Junction and Altrincham Railway, the Warrington and Stockport Railway, and the St. Helen's Railway; and the several Companies are required to facilitate the interchange of traffic on their joint lines, and to make arrangements with each other for the conduct of the traffic. This Bill would authorise the creation of 200,000 l. by shares, and a mortgage debt of 66,500 l., and would make certain arrangements as to existing capital.

The North Staffordshire (Liverpool Extension) Bill contains clauses for the uninterrupted interchange of traffic between the North Staffordshire Railway and the St. Helen's Railway.

The following Bill, which confers running powers, bears upon these Bills, and may therefore be noticed in connexion with them: viz.,

The Cannock Mineral Railway Bill would enable that Company to extend its line to Colwich and Wolverhampton, with power to use a portion of the South Staffordshire Railway, of the Oxford, Worcester and Wolverhampton Railway, and of the joint station of the Oxford, Worcester and Wolverhampton, and Great Western Railways at Wolverhampton; and the North Staffordshire Railway Company would be empowered to use the Cannock Railway, as well as those Railways which the Cannock Railway Company has power to use.

These Bills if passed would afford to the North Staffordshire Railway Company a means of railway communication with Liverpool and Manchester to the north, and would connect it to the south with the Oxford, Worcester and Wolverhampton and Great Western Railways, by which it would at once obtain a means of communication on the narrow gauge with Southampton, and possibly eventually with other more important places, independent of the London and North-Western Railway, in connexion with which it has hitherto been worked.

The North Staffordshire Railway Company possesses the Trent and Mersey Canal, which at the present time affords its only independent outlet by way of the Bridgewater Canal to the Mersey; and it is understood that negotiations have been recently entered into for the purchase of the Bridgewater Canal by the North Staffordshire Railway Company. The construction of the proposed line of Railway, and the amalgamation with the Warrington and Stockport Railway Railway Company and the St. Helen's Railway Company, as well as its connexion with the Southern lines, would probably have an important influence on its interests as to the maintenance of the Canals.

I.
*Bills by which the Interests of more
are affected.*

POWERS OF AMALGAMATION, SALE OR LEASE, SUBSCRIPTION, AND WORKING ARRANGEMENTS.

Amalgamation,
Sale, Lease, &c.

The Ulster Railway Bill would authorise the Ulster Railway Company to subscribe 20,000 l. towards the construction of the Dungannon Railway, and a further sum of 30,000 l. if necessary; this latter sum to have a preferential claim of 5*l.* per cent. The Dungannon Railway Company are to obtain, within three months from the passing of the Act, a certificate from the Board of Trade to prove that they are proceeding to complete the Railway with such diligence as to open it by the 1st May 1857, and that, in addition to the money subscribed by the Ulster Company, they have received on shares 35,000 l., and failing such certificates, the undertaking is to be transferred to the Ulster Company.

POWERS OF AMALGAMATION, SALE OR LEASE, RUNNING POWERS, AND NEW WORKS.

The North Western Railway Bill. This Bill authorises a deviation of that branch of the North-Western Railway which is proposed to join the Lancaster and Carlisle Railway, but which has not yet been constructed; and empowers the Company to use the Midland Railway between Skipton, Bradford and Leeds, as well as the Midland Station and the Central Station in Leeds, which latter belongs to the London and North Western, Lancashire and Yorkshire, Great Northern, and North Eastern Railway Companies jointly. Also, to use the Lancaster and Carlisle Railway from the proposed junction to Carlisle, and the Caledonian Railway from Carlisle to its junction with the Glasgow and South Western Railway; and it then authorises the North Western Railway Company to lease its Railway or to sell its Railway to the Midland Railway Company, the Lancaster and Carlisle Railway Company, the Great Northern Railway Company, the Caledonian Railway Company, the Glasgow and South Western Railway Company, or one or more of them, and would authorise those Companies to take the Railway on lease or to purchase it. The Board of Trade to arbitrate in case of disagreement.

POWERS OF AMALGAMATION, SALE OR LEASE, AND WORKING ARRANGEMENTS.

The Wimbledon and Croydon Railway Bill authorises that Company to lease its line to any person or persons, or body or bodies corporate approved by the Company, for 21 years; and empowers the Company to make arrangements with the London, Brighton, and South Coast, and the London and South Western Railway Companies. Any agreements to be subject to the approval of the Board of Trade, and to be limited to a period of 10 years. The provisions of this Bill as to lease appear to be very general. On the subject of leases to individuals, some remarks are made in a subsequent part of this Report, p. 28.

The West London and Crystal Palace Railway Bill would authorise the West London and Crystal Palace Railway Company to be sold to the London, Brighton and South Coast Railway Company, the London and South Western Railway Company, or the South Eastern Railway Company, or to be taken on lease by those companies, either jointly or by any one of the Companies. The three Companies are also empowered to hold shares in the undertaking to the amount of 600,000 l., and to raise for this purpose 450,000 l. by shares, and 150,000 l. by mortgage. The Company is authorised to raise 150,000 l. by shares by this Bill. The total authorised share capital of the Company would with this not amount to more than 590,000 l., and the borrowing power to 126,666 l., which is less than the amount the other companies are authorised to raise for purchasing, or holding shares in, the undertaking.

pany by Subscription.

The Norfolk Railway Bill would enable the Norfolk Railway Company to hold shares in the Wells and Fakenham Railway.

SUBSCRIPTIONS AND NEW WORKS.

The Provincial Railways (Joint Station Bill) would incorporate a Company with a share capital of 500,000 l., and power to borrow 133,000 l. for constructing a station or depôt for receiving goods; the locality of the proposed station is specified to be within certain limits. The extent of land to be purchased not to exceed 20 acres: 33 Railway Companies are empowered to subscribe towards the undertaking, and to guarantee 5 per cent. upon the shares for which they may subscribe; and this Company may make arrangements with any of the other Railway Companies as to the construction, management, and use of the station or any part thereof. There is no limit named as to the duration of the agreement.

The Thames Embankment and Railway Bill would incorporate a Company, with a share capital of 700,000 l., and power to borrow 233,000 l., to make an embankment on the north side of the Thames from Queenhithe Stairs to Westminster Bridge, with a railway and carriage way upon it, and a branch Railway from Manchester-buildings to the Westminster Terminus Railway. The London and North-Western, Great Western, London and South-Western, South-Eastern, London, Brighton, and South Coast, West End and Crystal Palace, and the Westminster Terminus Railway Companies, will be empowered to subscribe to the undertaking, and the Metropolitan Board of Works would be empowered to contribute 200,000 l. to be raised upon the security of the Metropolitan rates. The Company may enter into contracts for the supply of working stock.

As bearing to some extent upon these schemes it may be desirable to mention here the following, which, however, belong to another sub-division of this class, viz.:

The Westminster Terminus Railway Bill, which authorises the Company to deviate the railway, and fixes the capital at 240,000 l. The value of the shares are reduced from 10 l. to 8 l.; the borrowing power is fixed at 80,000 l. The time for the completion of the railway is extended to seven years from the passing of the Act. The London and South Western, London, Brighton and South Coast, South-Eastern, West End of London and Crystal Palace, Westminster Terminus Extension, and the East Kent Railway Companies, may subscribe to this undertaking, and may make working and traffic arrangements with the company; the duration of any agreements to be 10 years, and to be subject to the approval of the Board of Trade.

The Westminster Terminus Railway (West London Extension) Bill would incorporate a company with a share capital of 99,500 l. and power to borrow 33,166 l. 13 s. 4 d. for making a railway to connect the West End Railway with the Richmond Branch of the London and South-Western Railway. The Great Western, London and North-Western, London and South-Western, West End of London and Crystal Palace, Westminster Terminus, and East Kent Railway Companies are empowered to subscribe to the undertaking, and may raise additional capital for the purpose, or may guarantee interest on the Company's shares; and the Company may enter into arrangements as to working with the Great Western, London and North Western, and London and South Western Railway Companies; such agreements to be subject to the approval of the Board of Trade and limited to 10 years.

The two following Bills also confer powers upon some of the Companies affected by these Bills, and are therefore removed from their proper sub-division to be alluded to here, viz.:

The Mid Kent Railway (Bromley Extension) Bill would authorise the Mid Kent Railway

Railway Company to subscribe towards the Farnborough Extension of the West End of London and Crystal Palace Railway, and these two Companies and the South Eastern Railway Company would be empowered to make traffic or working arrangements respecting the Farnborough Extension. The duration of the agreements is not limited.

And by the Mid Kent Direct Railway (Bromley to St. Mary's Cray) Bill, the South Eastern Railway Company, the West End of London and Crystal Palace Railway Company, and the Mid Kent Railway Company, would be authorised to subscribe to the undertaking; and the Company would be empowered to enter into arrangements with the three Companies for the use of the line; the duration of the agreements to be limited to 10 years and to be subject to the approval of the Board of Trade.

The remaining Bill appertaining to this sub-division is,—

The Midland Great Western Railway of Ireland (Extension to Strokestown) Bill, which would enable the Midland Great Western Railway Company of Ireland to make an Extension Line from Longford to Strokestown, and to raise by shares 140,000 l., and to borrow 46,666 l. for the purpose.

The new line would be chargeable with the repayment of the sum of 500,000 l., borrowed from the Exchequer Loan Commissioners, on the security of the baronies, for the construction of the line between Athlone and Galway; the Company would also be empowered to subscribe 20,000 l. to the North-Western of Ireland Railway, to be raised by the creation of new shares.

In connection with this, the following Bill, which belongs to another sub-division, must be mentioned, viz. :

The North-Western Railway of Ireland Bill would incorporate a new Company for making a Railway from the Extension Line of the Midland Great Western Railway Company at Strokestown to Castlebar, with a share capital of 320,000 l., and power to borrow 106,000 l.; the Midland Great Western Railway Company to be empowered to subscribe 20,000 l. towards the undertaking, and to have power to raise the money by the creation of new shares.

The baronies of the counties of Mayo and Roscommon are to guarantee four per cent. upon the expenditure, which is not to exceed 6,000 l. per mile, by means of an assessment, which may amount to 3 d. in the pound. This subject is further alluded to at page 28.

The line is to be a single line; but the Board of Trade to have power to require the Company to lay down a double line.

The Company and the Midland Great Western Railway Company of Ireland are required to enter into working and traffic arrangements.

The duration of any agreement to be limited to 10 years, and to be subject to the approval of the Board of Trade.

SUBSCRIPTIONS, WORKING ARRANGEMENTS, RUNNING POWERS, AND NEW WORKS.

The only Bill under this head is the London and South-Western Railway (Exeter Extension) Bill. It will be recollected that in 1853 the London and South-Western Railway Company gave a pledge to a Committee of the House of Commons that they would construct an extension line to Exeter, on condition of the broad gauge line proposed by the Devon and Dorset Bill being rejected. But having gained their object, the Company neglected to introduce any Bill for the purpose; consequently, when a Bill for other purposes was introduced by the Company last Session, Parliament insisted as a preliminary that their former pledge should be fulfilled.

The Bill was therefore amended, and passed with clauses rendering it imperative on the Company to introduce a Bill into Parliament for an extension line, and authorising the Company to raise 1,000,000 l. by mortgage loans for the purpose. Two Bills were introduced this Session, with a view to one or the other being adopted, of which one is for a line from Dorchester to Exeter, and the other for a line from Yeovil to Exeter.

Bills by which the

than one Company
are affected.

Bills by which one

pany by Subscription.

The Shareholders have adopted the line from Yeovil to Exeter, and the other Bill has been withdrawn.

The Yeovil and Exeter Line has, however, this peculiarity, viz., that it is separated from the line of the South-Western Railway Company by the Salisbury and Yeovil Railway, which belongs to an independent Company.

The line of this Company is not yet made, nor has such an amount of capital been raised and expended by the Company as to admit, under the Standing Orders, of the line being purchased by the South-Western Railway Company. But with the view of preventing the Salisbury and Yeovil Company from being able to interfere with the direct traffic to Exeter, the Bill contains clauses empowering the South-Western Railway Company to use the line and stations of the Salisbury and Yeovil Railway, with their own engines and carriages; and the Salisbury and Yeovil Company are required to afford all facilities for the interchange of traffic.

The London and South-Western Railway Company is empowered to subscribe 100,000 £., and hold shares in the Salisbury and Yeovil Railway, and nominate Directors; and the London and South-Western Railway Company and the Salisbury and Yeovil Company are also empowered to enter into working arrangements, without any limit being named for the duration of such agreements.

My Lords have been informed that an agreement has been provisionally entered into between the two Companies for a period of 1,000 years, and that if this agreement be not sanctioned by Parliament, it will be for the Shareholders of the London and South-Western Railway Company to determine whether it would not be more expedient for them, under such circumstances, to abandon their present Bill and to come to Parliament, in a future Session, for a line from Dorchester to Exeter.

It is alleged in support of allowing the arrangement to be without limit as to time, that if its duration were limited, the Salisbury and Yeovil Company might, from having the key of the communication, demand at the end of the term exorbitant conditions for a renewal of the agreement. In this respect the case does not appear to differ from that of some other lines which are feeders to main lines where the new lines when constructed would be entirely dependent for working on the existing lines. The case has, however, this peculiarity, that between the time when the original pledge was given, and its fulfilment, Parliament has granted to another Company the power of making the Railway which forms so important a link in the communication; and that since that Company has not paid up, and expended half its capital, it cannot, under the Standing Orders of The House, be purchased by, or amalgamated with, the London and South-Western Company, who are bound to make the line to Exeter. But if the interests of the public require the two lines to be worked as one, and if difficulties are expected to arise which make an ordinary working arrangement undesirable, it might, under the peculiar circumstances of this case, be a question for consideration whether it would not be desirable to suspend the Standing Order with the view of at once transferring the undertaking of the one Company to the other.

In connexion with this Bill it may be desirable to mention the Salisbury Branch Railway and Market House Bill, which confers powers on the London and South-Western, and Salisbury and Yeovil Railway Companies, and incorporates a Company for making a short railway to the Market-place at Salisbury, with a share capital of 11,000 £., and power to borrow 3,666 £. The Great Western, London and South-Western, and Salisbury and Yeovil Railway Companies are empowered each to subscribe 1,000 £. towards the undertaking, and the Company may enter into working and traffic arrangements with any one of these Companies for a period of 10 years. The agreement to be subject to the approval of the Board of Trade.

SUBSCRIPTIONS, WORKING ARRANGEMENTS, AND NEW WORKS.

The Tottenham, Hornsey and Willesden Junction Railway Bill incorporates a Company

Company with a share capital of 60,000 l., and power to borrow 20,000 l. for making a railway from Tottenham to Hornsey.

The Great Northern Railway Company and the Eastern Counties Railway Company are empowered to subscribe to the undertaking, and to make agreements and traffic arrangements with the Company; such agreements to be limited to ten years, and subject to the approval of the Board of Trade.

The Glastonbury and Bruton Railway Bill enables the Somerset Central Railway Company to make a railway from Glastonbury to the Wilts, Somerset and Weymouth Railway, on the broad gauge, and to raise for the purpose 100,000 l., and to borrow 33,000 l. The Bristol and Exeter Railway Company would be empowered to subscribe 20,000 l. towards the undertaking, and the Great Western Railway Company are required to facilitate the transmission of traffic; and the Glastonbury and Bruton Railway Company and the Bristol and Exeter Railway Company are authorised to enter into working arrangements, but no limit is fixed for such arrangements.

By the Lymington Railway Bill a company would be incorporated with power to raise 24,000 l. by shares, and to borrow 8,000 l. for making a Railway from the Quay at Lymington to the London and South-Western Railway; and the London and South-Western Railway Company is empowered to subscribe to the undertaking, but the amount of subscription is not specified. The Company would have the power of using a portion of the Dorchester section of the London and South-Western Railway near Brockenhurst station, and would be authorised to enter into agreements with the London and South-Western Railway Company as to working, &c., for a period not exceeding ten years, subject to the approval of the Board of Trade.

The Colne Valley and Halstead Railway Bill incorporates a new company with a share capital of 40,000 l., and power to borrow 13,333 l.

The Bill authorises the Colchester, Stour Valley, Sudbury and Halstead Railway Company, the Eastern Union Railway Company, and the Eastern Counties Railway Company to subscribe any amount they think fit to the undertaking.

These companies are also authorised to enter into working and traffic arrangements with the Company.

By The Inverness and Aberdeen Junction Railway Bill a Company would be incorporated for making a Railway from Nairn to the Great North of Scotland Railway at Keith, with power to raise 325,000 l. by shares, and to borrow one-third of this amount; this line would form the connecting link between the Inverness and Nairn Railway and the Great North of Scotland Railway; and it is to pass through a district which the Great North of Scotland Railway originally occupied, but their powers in respect of which have lapsed. The Great North of Scotland Railway Company is empowered to subscribe 40,000 l. towards the undertaking, and to raise additional capital for this purpose.

The Company would be authorised to make arrangements with the Inverness and Nairn Railway Company for the joint use of a station at Nairn, with the Morayshire Railway Company, for the joint use of a station at Elgin, and with the Great North of Scotland Railway Company for the joint use of a station at Keith, and to enter into working arrangements with these Companies.

The Formartine and Buchan Railway Bill would incorporate a Company for making a Railway from near the Dyce Station of the Great North of Scotland Railway to Strichen, with a branch to Peterhead, the share capital of the Company to be 245,000 l., with power to borrow 81,666 l. The Great North of Scotland Railway Company would be empowered to subscribe 15,000 l. towards the undertaking out of their general funds. The Company and the Great North of Scotland Company are empowered to make agreements as to the working and joint use of the Railway for a period of 10 years, subject to the approval of the Board of Trade.

The following Bill may be mentioned in connexion with these Bills, although it properly belongs to another class, viz.:

The Aberdeen, Peterhead, and Fraserburgh Railway Bill, which is a competing scheme, and incorporates a Company for making a Railway from Aberdeen to Fraserburgh, with a branch to Peterhead, with power to raise 330,000 l. by shares, and to borrow 110,000 l. The Company to have power to make agreements with the Harbour Commissioners of the several ports as to tramways, to be laid along the quays, subject to the arbitration of the Board of Trade.

This line does not appear to be in connexion with any other Railway.

The Alford Valley Railway Bill would incorporate a Company for making a Railway from the Great North of Scotland Railway at Kinton to Alford, with a share capital of 85,000 l., and power to borrow 28,333 l.

The Great North of Scotland Railway Company would be empowered to subscribe 15,000 l. towards this undertaking, out of their general capital.

The Company is empowered to make agreements with the Great North of Scotland Railway Company for the working of the line, the agreements to be for a period not exceeding 10 years, and subject to the approval of the Board of Trade.

In connexion with this may be mentioned the following, which confers no powers of subscription, but which would be an alternative scheme:

The Deeside and Alford Valley Railway Extension Bill would incorporate a Company for making a Railway from the Deeside Railway at Doune to Alford, with a share capital of 131,000 l., and power to borrow 43,666 l. 13s. 4d. The Company to be authorised to make arrangements with the Deeside Railway Company as to working the line; the agreements to last for 10 years, subject to the approval of the Board of Trade.

The Dunblane, Doune, and Callender Railway Bill would incorporate a Company for making a Railway from the Scottish Central Railway near Dunblane to Callender, with a share capital of 60,000 l., and power to borrow 20,000 l.: the Scottish Central Railway Company to be empowered to subscribe 13,400 l. towards the undertaking, and to raise additional capital for the purpose. The Company would be empowered to enter into arrangements with the Scottish Central Railway Company for working the line, but no limit is stated for the duration of the agreement.

The Perth, Almond Valley and Methven Railway Bill incorporates a Company for making a Railway from the Scottish Midland Junction Railway to Methven, with a share capital of 25,000 l., and power to borrow 8,000 l. The Scottish Midland Junction Railway Company to be empowered to subscribe 7,000 l., and hold shares in the undertaking, and to raise additional capital for the purpose. The Company is empowered to make traffic and working arrangements with the Scottish Midland Railway Company for a period of 10 years, subject to the approval of the Board of Trade.

The Denny Junction Railway Bill incorporates a Company for making a Railway from the Forth and Clyde Junction Railway to the Castlecary Branch of the Caledonian Railway, with a share capital of 95,000 l., and power to borrow 31,666 l. The Caledonian Railway Company is empowered to subscribe 30,000 l. towards this undertaking, and to raise additional capital for the purpose. The Caledonian Railway Company are to work and maintain the Railway in perpetuity, under an agreement already made, and a joint committee is to be appointed for superintending the working. Certain agreements already entered into, as to the use of a part of the Forth and Clyde Railway are also ratified, and the three Companies may make further arrangements.

It appears desirable that the agreements already entered into should be carefully considered by the Committee, and it will be for them also to consider whether there are any grounds in this case why the agreement should be made in perpetuity, which is contrary to the recommendation of the Select Committee of the House of Commons on Railway and Canal Bills in 1853; and would not differ much from an amalgamation.

The Castle Douglas and Dumfries Railway Bill would incorporate a Company for making a Railway from Castle Douglas to the Glasgow and South-Western Railway at Dumfries, with a share capital of 120,000 l., and power to borrow 40,000 l. The Glasgow and South-Western Railway Company is empowered to subscribe 60,000 l. towards the undertaking, and to raise additional capital for this purpose. The two Companies are empowered to enter into traffic and working arrangements; but no period is limited for the duration of such agreements.

The Maybole and Girvan Railway Bill would incorporate a Company for making a Railway from the Ayr and Maybole Railway to Girvan, with a share capital of 68,000 l., and power to borrow 22,666 l. This Bill makes it incumbent on the Glasgow and South-Western Railway company to subscribe 20,000 l. towards the undertaking, and to raise additional share capital, or to borrow money for the purpose. The Glasgow and South-Western Railway Company work the Ayr and Maybole Railway. The Maybole and Girvan Railway Company and the Glasgow and South-Western Railway Company are empowered to enter into working and traffic arrangements; and the two Companies, as also the Ayr and Maybole and the Ayr and Dalmellington Railway Companies, may enter into arrangements for the reciprocal use of their Railways. No limit is specified for the duration of these agreements.

SUBSCRIPTIONS, CAPITAL ARRANGEMENTS, &c.

The Eastern Counties Railway (power to raise Money, &c.) Bill recites the capital of the Company at 9,946,215 l., with power to raise 350,000 l., to represent the Newmarket Railway Capital, and to create Debenture Stock. The Company may borrow 3,315,700 l. on mortgage debentures, including the sums already borrowed on mortgage. The Company may advance money to the Norfolk Railway Company and the Eastern Union Railway Company upon such security as may be agreed upon. The Bill also legalises any advances made to these Companies before the passing of the Act. The preamble recites that advances have been made to these Companies. As regards this, it is to be observed that any such advances must have been an illegal application of the funds of the Company, and that it will be for the Committee on the Bill to consider how far it is expedient to sanction an illegal expenditure of this nature, and whether it would not be desirable to put some check on Railway Companies in cases of this nature. The Bill also authorises an extension of time for certain purposes. As regards the provisions as to capital, My Lords are desirous of drawing the attention of the Committee on the Bill to their observations in page 27.

In connexion with this Bill it appears desirable to mention,—

The Eastern Union Railway Bill, from the preamble of which it appears that the sum of 200,000 l. has been advanced to this Company by the Eastern Counties Railway Company. The Bill authorises the Eastern Union Railway Company to pay off this sum, and to raise money for the purpose by means of preference shares to rank after the existing preference shares of the Company. But as an alternative plan for raising this money the Bill authorises the Eastern Counties Railway Company to guarantee the shares, and to indemnify themselves out of the profits of the Eastern Union Railway which they work. It may be a question whether this arrangement would not override the existing preferential securities of the Company. The Bill also authorises the Company to raise, by mortgage, the sum of 83,300 l., which they were authorised to raise by preference shares under their Act of 1852.

3.—RUNNING POWERS.

Of the Bills which confer Running Powers, four have been already mentioned. The remainder are as follow :

RUNNING POWERS AND NEW WORKS.

The East Kent Railway Bill would authorise that Company to make a Railway from Dartford to join the Westminster Terminus Railway. The Company would be empowered to raise a further sum of 400,000 l. by shares, and one-third on mortgage, and to use, or run over, with its engines and trains, the North Kent Line between Strood and Dartford, and the Westminster Terminus Railway, upon terms to be settled by an arbitrator, to be appointed by the Board of Trade. This line would therefore, in connexion with the East Kent Railway already authorised, afford a direct means of communication from the West End of London to Dover.

RUNNING POWERS, NEW WORKS, AND WORKING ARRANGEMENTS.

The London, Barking and Victoria Dock Railway Bill would incorporate a Company for making a Railway from the London and Blackwall Extension Railway at Stepney to the London, Tilbury, and Southend Extension Railway at Barking, with a share capital of 150,000 l., and power to borrow 50,000 l. The Company may make arrangements for 10 years with the Eastern Counties and London and Blackwall Railway Companies, and the lessees of the Tilbury Railway subject to approval of the Board of Trade; and would have power to use with its engines and carriages the North Woolwich Railway, upon terms to be settled by the Board of Trade. The London, Tilbury, and Southend Railway (Extension and Branches) Bill appears to provide an identical scheme.

By the London and North-Western Railway (Alteration of Crewe and Shrewsbury, &c.) Bill, the London and North-Western Railway Company would be empowered to alter the line authorised in 1853, between Shrewsbury and Crewe, and the time would be extended for making the Railway. It would give the Company power to use the general station at Shrewsbury, and such lines of Railway in or approaching the station as may be necessary and sufficient for the usage by the Company of the station. The Bill also makes the Company partners in that station with the Great Western, Shrewsbury and Hereford, and Shropshire Union Railway Companies; the terms to be settled by an arbitrator to be appointed by the Board of Trade.

The Bill also empowers the Company to enter into arrangements with the Severn Valley and Shrewsbury and Hereford Railway Company. It also contains provisions as to local works at Bolton, Preston and Warrington, and removes the limit as to interest on the debenture stock authorised by the London and North Western Act, 1852.

In connexion with this may be mentioned,—

The Shrewsbury and Welchpool Railway Bill, which would incorporate a Company with a share capital of 150,000 l., and power to borrow 50,000 l. for making a Railway from the Oswestry and Newtown Railway to the Shrewsbury and Hereford Railway, as well as a branch line.

The Company is empowered to enter into traffic and working arrangements with the London and North-Western Railway Company, the Shropshire Union Railway Company, and the Oswestry and Newtown Railway Company, to be approved by the Board of Trade, and to last for 10 years; and the Company may use with their engines and carriages a part of the Shrewsbury and Hereford Railway; the conditions to be fixed by the Board of Trade.

The Morayshire Railway (Extension) Bill would empower that Company to make a Railway from the proposed Inverness and Aberdeen Junction Railway at Garbity to near Craigellachie, and to raise for the purpose 25,000 l. by shares, and to borrow 8,333 l., and to make arrangements with the Inverness and Aberdeen Junction Railway Company, as to the formation and maintenance of a joint station at Elgin. The Morayshire Railway Company would also be authorised to use with its engines and carriages a portion of the Inverness and Aberdeen Junction Railway upon terms to be settled by arbitration; the Morayshire Railway being also used by the Inverness and Aberdeen Junction Railway Company.

The Morayshire Railway Company would also be authorised to enter into traffic arrangements with the Inverness and Aberdeen Junction Railway Company and the Inverness and Nairn Railway Company for a period not exceeding nine years.

4.—WORKING ARRANGEMENTS.

Forty-eight Bills confer upon two or more Railway Companies power of entering into arrangements with each other. Of these 31 have been already alluded to.

The remainder are as follow :

I.
*Bills by which the Interests of more
than one Company
are affected.*

Working
Arrangements.

WORKING ARRANGEMENTS EXCLUSIVELY.

The Thames Haven Dock and Railway Bill. This Company were originally proprietors of a Railway and a Dock at Thames Haven. The Railway has been transferred under a former Act of Parliament to the Eastern Counties and the London and Blackwall Railway Companies. The Company is now only a Dock Company; it seeks powers to extend its Dock accommodation. The capital of the Company is fixed at 51,000 l., and the borrowing power at 12,000 l.

The Bill authorises this Company and the Eastern Counties and London and Blackwall Railway Companies to make agreements for the construction, maintenance, use, &c. of the docks, and for interchange of traffic. But no limit is stated for the duration of the agreements.

WORKING ARRANGEMENTS AND NEW WORKS.

The Caterham Railway (Extension) Bill would empower the Caterham Railway Company to make two short branch lines, and to raise for the purpose 16,000 l. by shares, and to borrow 5,000 l.; and also to raise by shares or to borrow 5,000 l. for the general purposes of the undertaking. The Company would be empowered to make working and traffic arrangements with the South-Eastern Railway Company and the London, Brighton, and South Coast Railway Company. But the duration of the agreements is not limited.

The South-Eastern Railway Company would also receive powers by the Darenth Valley Railway (Amendment, &c.) Bill which would authorise the Company to deviate their line; and would extend the time for making the Railway until five years from the passing of this Bill. The Company is empowered to enter into working arrangements with the South-Eastern Railway Company. Any agreement to be limited to 10 years, and subject to the approval of the Board of Trade.

The Dorset Central Railway Bill would incorporate a Company for making a branch line from the Southampton and Dorchester section of the London and South-Western Railway, to Blandford St. Mary's, with a share capital of 100,000 l., and power to borrow 33,333 l. The Company is authorised to make working arrangements with the London and South-Western Railway Company; but no limit is fixed for the duration of the agreements.

The Poole and Bourne Valley Railway Bill would incorporate a Company, with a share capital of 36,000 l., and powers to borrow 12,000 l., for making a Railway from the London and South-Western Railway, near Poole, to near Bournemouth. It would, in fact, be a branch of the London and South-Western Railway.

The Company are authorised to enter into working arrangements with the London and South-Western Railway Company, but no period is limited for the duration of the agreements.

The Isle of Wight Steam Bridge and Approaches Company Bill would incorporate a Company, with a share capital of 20,000 l., and power to borrow 6,300 l., for making a steam ferry between Stokes Bay and Ryde, with power to enter into agreements with the Stokes Bay Railway and Pier Company, authorised by an Act of last Session.

The East Somerset Railway Bill would incorporate a Company, with a share capital of 75,000 l., and power to borrow 25,000 l. for making a railway from the Wilts, Somerset, and Weymouth Railway to Shipton Mallet. The Company is empowered to enter into working arrangements with the Great Western Railway Company; if the agreements are made for more than 10 years the Board of Trade is to have a power of revising the agreements at the expiration of each successive period of 10 years.

Working

The London, Tilbury, and Southend Railway (Extension and Branches) Bill authorises the joint committee of the owners of that line (viz., the Eastern Counties and London and Blackwall Railway Companies) to make a Railway and two Branch Railways in connexion with their line. The Eastern Counties Railway Company may, under the Bill, elect to make the branch Railways. The two Companies may raise 150,000 l. by shares for the purpose of making these Railways, and borrow 50,000 l. The new portion of Railway may be transferred to the lessees of the existing Railway. The Bill also provides for agreements as to the conduct of the traffic between the Companies and the lessees. This project appears to be similar to the one proposed by the London, Barking and Victoria Docks Bill, which has been mentioned.

The Lowestoft and Beccles Railway Bill would incorporate a Company, with a share capital of 80,000 l., and power to borrow 26,500 l., for making a Railway from the East Suffolk Railway at Beccles to Lowestoft; it would afford a shorter line to Lowestoft from Beccles than the existing line. The Company would be empowered to enter into working and traffic arrangements with the Eastern Counties Railway Company and the East Suffolk Railway Company (which latter Company has power to make arrangements with the Eastern Counties Railway Company). The agreements to be for periods not exceeding 10 years, and subject to the approval of the Board of Trade.

The Yarmouth and Haddiscoe Railway Bill would incorporate a Company for making a Railway from Yarmouth to Haddiscoe, which would run very nearly parallel to, and at a short distance from, a portion of the Yarmouth and Lowestoft Railway. The capital of the Company to be 90,000 l., with power to borrow 30,000 l. The Company would be empowered to enter into working and traffic agreements with the Norfolk Railway Company, the Eastern Counties Railway Company, and the East Suffolk Railway Company. The agreements to be limited to 10 years, and subject to the approval of the Board of Trade.

It is to be observed, that these two last-mentioned Railways would afford by the East Suffolk Railway a much more direct communication between London, Ipswich, Yarmouth, and Lowestoft, than at present exists.

The Ely Tidal Harbour and Railway Bill would incorporate a Company for making a Railway from the Taff Vale Railway to the River Ely, with a tidal harbour. The share capital to be 130,000 l., with power to borrow 43,000 l. The Company is empowered to enter into working and traffic agreements with the Taff Vale Railway Company for 21 years, subject to the approval of the Board of Trade; and the Board of Trade is to appoint an auditor, if called on by interested parties.

The Rhosydd Railway Bill would incorporate a Company, with a share capital of 8,000 l., and power to borrow 2,600 l., for making a Railway from the Rhosydd Slate Quarry to the Festiniog Railway, and to enter into working arrangements with the Festiniog Railway Company; but no time is limited for the duration of the agreements.

The Vale of Clwyd Railway Bill would incorporate a Company for making a Railway from the Chester and Holyhead Railway at Abergele to Denbigh, with a share capital of 60,000 l., and power to borrow 20,000 l. The Company is authorised to enter into working and traffic arrangements with the Chester and Holyhead Railway Company, and the London and North-Western Railway Company. The agreements to last for 10 years, and to be subject to the approval of the Board of Trade.

The Kinross-shire Railway Bill would incorporate a Company, with a share capital of 50,000 l., and power to borrow 16,666 l., for making a Railway from the Lunfermline Branch of the Edinburgh, Perth, and Dundee Railway to Kinross, Kinross, and certain Branch Railways; with power to enter into working and traffic arrangements with the Edinburgh, Perth, and Dundee Railway Company. But no time is limited for the duration of the agreements.

I.
Bills by which the Interests of more
than one Company
are affected.

The West of Fife Mineral Railway Bill would incorporate a Company for making a Railway from the Stirling and Dunfermline Railway, near the junction of the Elgin Railway. This line would run to a certain extent into the same district as the last-mentioned Railway. The share capital of the Company to be 45,000*l.*, with power to borrow 15,000 l. The Company is empowered to make traffic agreements with the proprietor of the Elgin Railway, but no time is limited for the duration of the agreements, and existing agreements are legalised. It appears desirable that the Committee should consider those agreements before sanctioning them.

Working
Arrangements.

WORKING ARRANGEMENTS, NEW WORKS, AND EXTENSION OF TIME.

The Llanidloes and Newtown Railway Bill would authorise that Company to deviate and extend the line, and the time for the completion of the line is extended to five years from the passing of the Act. The Company is authorised to raise 8,000 l. additional capital by shares, and to borrow 2,650 l., and to make working agreements with the Oswestry and Newtown Railway Company. The agreements to be for 10 years, and subject to the approval of the Board of Trade.

WORKING AND CAPITAL ARRANGEMENTS.

The Bagenalstown and Wexford Railway Bill would authorise the Company to convert 30,000 l. of their capital into a six per cent. preference stock, and would alter the borrowing powers.

It would also empower the Company to enter into traffic and working arrangements with the Great Southern and Western, Irish South-Eastern, and Waterford and Kilkenny Railway Companies; the agreements to be for periods not exceeding 10 years, and subject to approval of Board of Trade.

WORKING AND CAPITAL ARRANGEMENTS, AND EXTENSION OF TIME.

The Banbridge Junction Railway Bill alters the name of the Banbridge, Newry, Dublin, and Belfast Junction Railway Company, and makes arrangements as to the capital of the Company. The time for the completion of the Railway is extended. The Company may enter into working arrangements with the Dublin and Belfast Junction Railway Company, or any other Company whose line joins the Dublin and Belfast Junction Railway, but no period is limited for the duration of the agreements.

5.—MISCELLANEOUS.

Under this head is classed the Oxford, Worcester and Wolverhampton Railway Miscellaneous.
(Extension of Time, &c.) Bill.

By an Act of 1854 the Oxford, Worcester, and Wolverhampton Railway Company were required to lay down a complete double line of broad gauge, as well as of narrow gauge, from one end of the line to the other, by the first day of January 1856, under certain penalties, to be sued for under the authority of the Board of Trade.

Last Session the Company applied to Parliament to be relieved from the obligation of constructing the broad gauge line; but their Bill was not passed. In the course of last autumn, after the expiration of the time limited for the completion of the broad gauge, the Great Western Railway Company applied to this department to enforce the penalties; but at an interview at which both parties were represented, it was arranged that this application should be withdrawn for a time, upon the understanding that any application to be made to Parliament by the Oxford, Worcester, and Wolverhampton Railway Company, should be confined (except by mutual consent) to an application for further time to complete the line, and for power to raise additional money and for relief from penalties already incurred.

I.

Miscellaneous.

The Bill extends the time for completing the broad gauge until the expiration of four years from the passing of the Act.

It authorises the Great Western and Oxford, Worcester, and Wolverhampton Railway Companies, to make agreements for the discontinuance or removal of all or any part of the broad-gauge rails, and for the completion of the narrow-gauge rails; for laying narrow-gauge rails on the Great Western Railway; the preamble reciting that it may be expedient that the Company should lay narrow-gauge rails between Reading and Paddington; for the Great Western Railway Company to relinquish all rights in the Oxford, Worcester, and Wolverhampton Railway; and for paying off the shares held by the Great Western Railway Company.

The Company obtained power to construct the Stratford Branch in a former Session, but they were not to expend any money upon the construction of that line until their main line was laid double throughout.

The present Bill proposes to relieve them from this obligation, and enable them to enter into agreements for the construction of the Stratford Branch by the creation of a separate share capital; separate accounts being kept.

In connexion with this may be mentioned,—

The Oxford, Worcester, and Wolverhampton Railway (additional Capital) Bill which would authorise the Company to raise 150,900*l.* additional money for the purpose of completing their line with a double line of rails, either by borrowing or by the creation of preference stock; such stock, with the consent of three-fourths of the holders of preference stock, to have priority over existing preference stock.

II.

BILLS BY WHICH ONE COMPANY ONLY IS AFFECTED.

1.—EXTENSION OF TIME.

II.
Bills by which one Company only is affected.

By the following Bills the time for completing Railways or portions of Railway would be extended.

Extension of Time.

EXTENSION OF TIME EXCLUSIVELY.

Hampstead Junction Railway (Extension of Time, &c.) Bill would extend the time for the completion of the Railway to four years from the passing of the Bill.

The St. Ives and West Cornwall Junction Railway (Renewal and Extension, &c.) Bill would extend the time for making the line for three years.

The Stockton and Darlington Railway (further Powers, &c.) Bill would extend the time for making a certain portion of the line. It also proposes to increase considerably the tolls on coal, &c.

The Waveney Valley Railway Bill revives the powers for making certain portions of the Waveney Valley Railway, and enacts that they shall continue in force until 1858.

EXTENSION OF TIME AND NEW WORKS.

The Carmarthen and Cardigan (Deviation) Bill would deviate the Company's line almost entirely, and authorises the creation of a 6 per cent. preference stock; the time for making the Railway is extended to five years from the passing of the Bill.

The Cork and Youghal Railway Bill would empower the Company to extend their line in Cork, and it extends the time for the completion of the Railway.

The Metropolitan Railway Bill would authorise that Company to make a branch line to join the Great Northern Railway, and would extend the time for the completion of the line. It also proposes to modify the clause by which the deposit is withheld until the line has been completed, or half the capital has been paid up, so as to allow the deposit to be repaid to the Company in certain proportions; that is to say, as soon as 22,500*l.* has been expended on the works, that amount is to be paid out of the deposit back to the Company, and so on until the whole shall have been repaid. This would defeat the object of the 136th Standing Order of the House of Commons.

II.
Bills by which one Company only is affected.
Extension of Time.

EXTENSION OF TIME, NEW WORKS, AND CAPITAL ARRANGEMENTS.

The Severn Valley Railway Bill authorises the Company to deviate their line of railway, and extends the time for the completion of the line. The Bill proposes that the deposit-money, which is security for the completion of the Railway, should be restored to the Company. No reasons beyond those which might be alleged in the case of every Railway are stated to justify the return of the deposit before the works are completed, or before half the share capital has been paid up, and allowed in this case. It will, of course, be for the Committee to consider whether it should be allowed.

2.—NEW WORKS.

In the Sittingbourne and Sheerness Railway Bill, the usual course of incorporating a company is not pursued, but the Bill appoints Commissioners, with power to borrow 100,000 l., for making a Railway from Sittingbourne to Sheerness, with a railway and road bridge across the Swale.

New Works.

The accounts to be audited by an auditor appointed by the Board of Trade. When the capital has been reduced to 80,000 l., the maximum tolls are to be reduced.

The Epsom and Leatherhead Railway Bill incorporates a Company for making a Railway from the Epsom Branch of the London, Brighton, and South Coast Railway to Leatherhead, with a share capital of 30,000 l., and power to borrow 10,000 l.

The Luton, Dunstable, and Welwyn Junction Railway Bill would authorise a deviation of the line.

The Barnsley Canal and Collieries Railway Bill would incorporate a Company for making Railways from the Barnsley Canal to certain collieries, with a share capital of 19,500*l.*, and power to borrow 6,500*l.*

The Stockton and Darlington, and Newcastle and Carlisle Union Railway Bill incorporates a Company for making a Railway from the Newcastle and Carlisle Railway to the Stockton and Darlington Railway, near the Conside Iron Works, with a branch line, and authorises the Company to raise 100,000*l.*, and to borrow one-third of the amount; the line to be a single line until the amount of traffic shall be sufficient to require a double line, but there is no tribunal appointed which is to be the judge of such necessity.

The Forest of Dean Central Railway Bill would incorporate a Company, with a share capital of 65,000*l.*, and power to borrow 21,660*l.*, for making a Railway from the South Wales Railway, at Aure, into Howbeach Valley, in the Forest of Dean.

II.
Bills by which one Company only is affected.

New Works.

The Milford Junction Railway Bill would incorporate a Company, with a share capital of 60,000*l.*, and power to borrow 20,000*l.*, for making a Railway from the Neyland Extension of the South Wales Railway to Milford.

Swansea Vale Railway Bill would authorise the Company to extend their line of Railway, and to connect it with colliery lines. It enacts certain arrangements as to the shares.

The Wycombe Railway (Branch to Marlow) Bill would authorise the Company to make a branch line to Marlow, and to issue their preference shares at six per cent.

The Shrewsbury and Hereford Railway Bill. The Bill fixes the capital of the Company at 675,000*l.*, with power to borrow 225,000*l.*, by which the power of the Company to raise capital is increased by 225,000*l.*, and the borrowing powers by 75,000*l.*; this additional capital may be raised by five per cent preferential shares. The Bill also authorises arrangements as to shares. It recites the undertaking of the Company to be the line from Shrewsbury to Hereford, a share in a joint station at Shrewsbury, the other owners being the Great Western, the Shropshire Union, and the London and North-Western Railway Companies; a share with the Hereford, Ross and Gloucester Railway Company in a joint station at Hereford; a certain goods station, and additional accommodation is proposed to be authorised by the Bill.

IN SCOTLAND.

The East of Fife Railway Bill authorises a deviation of the line.

The Scottish Central Railway (Branch &c.) Bill would authorise the Company to make a Branch Railway to Denny out of their existing funds.

There is a Bill incorporating a Company for making a Railway through Denny, which would, for a portion of the line, be nearly parallel to this line.

3.—CAPITAL ARRANGEMENTS, &c.

Arrangements as to Capital and Miscellaneous.

The Fleetwood, Preston and West Riding Union Railway Bill consolidates the Acts of that Company, and confirms their provisions. The maximum tolls are proposed to be increased, as shown in the following Table:—

	PASSENGERS.			GOODS, &c. PER TON.				ANIMALS PER HEAD.			Carriages.
	1st Class.	2d Class.	3d Class.	Dung, &c.	Coals.	Corn.	General Mercan- dise.	Horses.	Cattle.	Calves, Sheep, Pigs.

Proposed increase per cent. on maximum charges	50	60	-	50	50	66	50	-	Decrease 25	-	-

The Midland Railway (Power to raise additional Capital) Bill empowers that Company to raise 400,000*l.* by shares, for the general purposes of their undertaking; and it enacts that the borrowing power of the Company shall be one-third of the share capital.

The Stirling and Dunfermline Railway (Power to create additional Shares, &c.) Bill authorises the Company to raise for the purpose of former Acts, and to provide provide for excess of expenditure, a sum of 100,000 l., and to borrow 33,000 l., and to capitate their debenture debt by a four per cent. preferential irre-deemable stock.

II.
Bills by which one Company only is
affected.

The North British Railway (New Powers, &c.) Bill would authorise the Company to raise 152,000 l. new capital by shares, and to re-issue certain cancelled shares upon such terms and conditions as the shareholders shall think fit, and also to create a debenture stock, and to borrow an additional sum of 50,000 l. by loans. The Company would be authorised to make certain new works in Edinburgh.

Arrangements as to Capital and Miscellaneous.

The Londonderry and Enniskillen Railway Bill authorises the Company to issue 32,025 l. of the capital they are authorised to raise at a preference of eight per cent.; and with the consent of the preference shareholders, it is to be a preferential charge to the existing preference shares.

4.—MISCELLANEOUS.

The London, Tilbury, and Southend Extension Railway (Increase of Capital, Purchase, &c.) Bill would authorise the Eastern Counties and London and Blackwall Railway Companies, as joint owners of the London, Tilbury, and Southend Railway, to purchase the Southend Pier, and to let it to the lessees of the London, Tilbury, and Southend Railway, and to raise, for the purpose of this Act and of the former Acts, an additional sum of 80,000 l. by shares, and to borrow 75,000 l.

The Bill also authorises the Company to supply the town of Southend with water. This latter provision at least seems to be an object, which might require a large expenditure of capital, foreign to the duties of a Railway Company.

The Worcester and Hereford Railway Bill empowers that Company to abandon its line between Malvern and Hereford; it changes the name of the Company to that of the Worcester and Malvern Railway Company, and fixes the capital of the Company at 248,500 l., and the borrowing powers at 82,833 l.

The Killarney Junction Railway and Tralee and Killarney Railway (Amendment of Acts, &c.) Bill would authorise certain lands to be transferred to the Companies, upon their erecting a station and hotel at Killarney and at Farnfore.

CAPITAL.

Capital.

My Lords think it desirable to draw attention to the remarks which they made last year on this subject, which appear applicable equally to the Bills now before Parliament; viz.:

"In many of the Bills for the construction of new works by existing Companies provision is not made for raising additional Capital, but the Companies are empowered to apply to the construction of the proposed works any money they may have been authorised to raise by previous Acts, and which may not be required for the purposes to which it was applicable under the provisions of those Acts. In order to protect the shareholders as well as the public from the mischief that might arise from the application of the funds of Railway Companies to objects not sanctioned by Parliament, and not in contemplation at the time when their powers were obtained, it appears of importance that every suitable opportunity should be taken of ascertaining and limiting the amount of money that may raise, and of defining its appropriation. With this view it may deserve consideration, with respect to the Bills above referred to, whether it should not be required that the particulars of the surplus capital should be set forth in the Bill, and its amount ascertained by the Committee, and that the portion and amount intended to be applied to the new schemes should be specified, and its application restricted to the purposes described in the Bill.

Capital.

“ Previously to the year 1847, considerable laxity prevailed in the manner of framing the provisions relating to the raising of capital in Railway Bills, and powers of this kind were frequently given without any express limitation of the purposes to which the money should be applied. In 1847, the Commissioners of Railways, in their Reports to Parliament on the Railway Bills of that Session, had occasion to remark on this and other irregularities in the form of the money powers. And in 1848, the Select Committee of the House of Commons on Railways, in their Third Report, suggested that Committees on Railway Bills should in future give increased attention to the money clauses of such Bills, and more especially that they should refuse to allow any power of raising money, unless the general application of such money was set forth in the Bill. And this recommendation of the Committee was enforced by an Order of the House of Commons of the 31st May 1848. Since that time it has become the established practice in Bills authorising Railway Companies to raise money by shares or loan, to provide that the money to be raised by either mode shall be applied to the purposes of the Act, and to no other purpose.”

LEASES TO INDIVIDUALS.

Under this head would appear to be included,

The Wimbledon and Croydon Railway Bill, which has been already mentioned.

The following are the remarks which my Lords made last year on Bills of this nature; viz.:

“ With respect to the transfer of the undertakings and powers of the Companies to private individuals, questions may arise as to the policy of such a measure on several grounds.

“ It would deprive the public of the security which, on the usual plan of vesting the powers in an incorporated Company, is afforded by the establishment of a permanent body responsible for the proper construction, maintenance and management of the Railway.

“ The lessees might assign their interest in the Railways to other parties, and provide for its transmission to their personal representatives. It might therefore eventually devolve upon and become divisible amongst an indefinite number of persons; and it might thus become difficult to ascertain the parties responsible for the performance of the duties imposed by law on the proprietors of public passenger Railways; and there appears to be no security provided that the property in the Railway and plant may not become liable for the private debts and engagements of the proprietors for the time being, and be resorted to for the satisfaction of those debts and engagements.

“ These considerations appear to apply with nearly equal force to the case of a lease to private individuals as to that of an absolute transfer, and may render it advisable that, if under the circumstances of the case the Committee should think it expedient to authorise the lease, it should be limited to a short term of years, and that the powers and duties of the lessees should be carefully defined.”

Guarantees by Counties in Ireland.

GUARANTEES BY COUNTIES IN IRELAND.

One Bill, previously alluded to, appears to come under this head, viz., The North-Western of Ireland Railway Bill.

Report of last Session.

The following are the remarks which my Lords made last year on this subject, viz.:

“ Provisions of this kind were first of all introduced into the public general Act, 12 & 13 Vict. c. 62, for authorising an advance of public money for the completion of the line of the Midland Great Western Railway of Ireland between Athlone and Galway, and the interest of the loan was guaranteed “ under

“under that Act by the baronies of the district adjoining the line. Similar provisions have in subsequent years been inserted in several of the special Acts of Irish Railway Companies. The adoption of these provisions in the special Acts alluded to, has proceeded in each instance, as appears from the Reports of the Committee of the House of Commons on the Bills, upon a special inquiry into the circumstances of the case.

Guarantees by Counties in Ireland.

“My Lords are not aware of any objection in principle to arrangements of this kind, where the traffic is insufficient fairly to remunerate the line, but they would suggest for consideration, whether it would be desirable that the Board of Works in Ireland should be desired to report upon the circumstances under which this obligation is sought to be imposed upon the baronies in each of these cases respectively.”

INTRA-METROPOLITAN LINES.

Intra-Metropolitan Lines.

The following Bills, which have been already alluded to, are included under this head, viz.:

Metropolitan Railway Bill.

Provincial Railways (Joint Station) Bill.

Thames Embankment and Railway Bill.

Westminster Terminus Railway Bill.

Westminster Terminus Railway (West London Extension) Bill.

In their remarks upon this subject last year, my Lords observed that “in 1846 a Royal Commission was appointed to investigate and report upon the various projects for Railways, which would be situated within or in the immediate vicinity of the metropolis. The limits to which the attention of the Commission was confined were as follows, viz., the Edgware-road from Oxford-street to the intersection with the New-road. The New-road and City-road to Finsbury-square; Bishopsgate-street to London Bridge; High-street, Borough; Blackman-street, Borough-road, Lambeth-road, Vauxhall-road, Vauxhall Bridge, Vauxhall Bridge-road, Grosvenor-place, and Park-lane.

“This Commission made several recommendations, of which the second bears particularly upon the present scheme, and is as follows, viz.:

“‘That if at any time hereafter it should be deemed advisable to admit Railways within those limits, this should be done in conformity with some uniform plan, carefully laid down under the authority of Your Majesty’s Government, and sanctioned by the wisdom of Parliament; and that under no circumstances should the thoroughfares of the metropolis, and the property and comfort of its inhabitants, be surrendered to separate schemes brought forward at different times, and without reference to each other.’

“It will be in the recollection of the General Committee, that, in 1842, a Commission was appointed for inquiring into the most effectual means of improving the metropolis, over which the present Duke of Newcastle, then Chief Commissioner of Woods, presided. The Commissioners inquired at great length, and with great particularity, into the best mode of improving the Thames, as a means of communication both by water and upon quays, and also with a view to the beauty of the metropolis. If the Committee shall be of opinion that the caution contained in the foregoing resolution of Lord Canning’s Commission ought to be observed in respect of this most important branch of the question of Metropolitan Railways, my Lords would suggest, whether, in order to give effect to it, the Committee would think it desirable to communicate more particularly with the present Chief Commissioner of Works.”

EXTENSION OF TIME.

It has been already observed that the following Bills propose to extend the time for completing works authorised by previous Acts :

Banbridge Junction Railway Bill, Carmarthen and Cardigan Railway Bill, Cannock Mineral Railway Bill, Cork and Youghal Railway Bill, Darent Valley Railway Bill, Eastern Counties Railway Bill, Hampstead Junction Railway Bill, Llanidloes and Newtown Railway Bill, Metropolitan Railway Bill, St. Ives and West Cornwall Railway Bill, Severn Valley Railway Bill, Stockton and Darlington Railway Bill, Waveney Valley Railway Bill, Westminster Terminus Railway Bill.

My Lords are desirous of drawing the notice of The House to the following paragraph from the Report of the Select Committee on Railway and Canal Bills, of the Session of 1853, viz. :

“The Committee therefore would advise that no new scheme should be permitted to proceed, without giving effectual security for its actual and immediate completion.”

This recommendation was ratified by The House, in the 136th Standing Order.

The object which The House and the Select Committee had in view will, to some extent, be defeated, if the time originally allowed for the completion of the works be extended by subsequent Acts.

RAILWAY AND CANAL BILLS.

REPORT of the Board of Trade on the Railway and Canal Bills of Session 1856.

(Mr. Strutt.)

Ordered, by The House of Commons, to be Printed, 10 March 1856.

H A R B O U R S, &c.

RETURN to an Order of the Honourable The House of Commons, dated 29 February 1856;—

“THAT the BOARD of TRADE do present to this House a REPORT upon the RAILWAY and CANAL BILLS of this Session, in conformity with the Recommendation contained in the Fifth Report of the Select Committee on RAILWAY and CANAL BILLS of the Session of 1853 :

“And That the BOARD of TRADE do present to this House a REPORT upon the PRIVATE BILLS for HARBOURS, DOCKS, NAVIGATIONS, &c., in conformity with the practice in force with respect to Railway Bills.”

(So far as relates to HARBOURS, &c.)

THE following Bills, relating to Harbours, Docks, and Navigations have been presented to the House :—

A Bill for carrying into effect certain provisions of “The Birkenhead Docks Act, 1855 ;” for providing for the construction, completion, and management of the Birkenhead Docks ; and for other purposes.

A Bill for the Improvement of the district of St. Peter, Bournemouth, in the parishes of Christchurch and Holdenhurst, in the county of Southampton, and for providing a Pier there.

A Bill for the Improvement of the Harbour of Broadstairs, in the Isle of Thanet, and county of Kent ; and for the construction of a Low Water Landing Pier, and other Works, at Broadstairs aforesaid.

A Bill to enable the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Cork to remove certain Bridges, and to build New Bridges in lieu thereof ; to confirm certain arrangements with the Cork Pipe Water Trustees ; to provide the necessary Funds for affording an improved Supply of Water at Cork ; to alter, amend, and enlarge certain powers and provisions of the Cork Improvement Act, 1852, and for other purposes.

A Bill for the Improvement and better Regulation of the Driffeld Navigation. (This Bill was withdrawn on the 7th March.)

A Bill for effecting certain alterations in the works of the Tidal Harbour of Victoria Dock at Dundee, and for other purposes in relation to the Harbour of Dundee.

A Bill for making a Railway from the Taff Vale Railway to the River Ely, in the county of Glamorgan ; for converting part of the said river into a Tidal Harbour, and regulating the access thereto ; for authorising arrangements with the Taff Vale Railway Company ; and for other purposes.

A Bill for more effectually Paving, Cleansing, Lighting, and otherwise improving the Town of Gravesend, in the county of Kent.

A Bill for establishing and maintaining a Ferry between Stokes Bay and Ryde, in the county of Southampton, with Landing Places and Approaches thereto.

A Bill for granting further powers to the Trustees of the Harbour of Kirkwall, and for other purposes.

A Bill to enable the London Dock Company to raise a further sum of money.

A Bill for making and maintaining a Dock and Tidal Basin in the River Tyne, on the North side thereof, near the Low Lights at North Shields, in the borough of Tynemouth.

A Bill to provide for the arrangement of the Financial Affairs of the City of Perth; for the maintenance of the Port and Harbour; the Extension of the Municipal Boundaries of the said City; and for other purposes therewith connected.

A Bill for enlarging and improving the Stotfield and Lossiemouth Harbour; for raising a further sum of money; and for other purposes.

A Bill for the making of a Dock and Works at Thames Haven; and for other purposes.

In reporting upon these Bills, my Lords have adhered strictly to the principles laid down in their Report on the Private Bills for Docks, Harbours, &c., of last Session, and as these were so fully discussed at the time, it appears to their Lordships unnecessary to do more than refer to that Report.

My Lords, therefore, at once proceed to submit their observations on the several Bills.

*Birkenhead Docks
Bill.*

Objects of Bill.

Birkenhead Docks Bill.

The objects of this Bill are,—

1. To repeal the existing Acts relating to the Birkenhead Docks, ss. 4 to 9.
2. To enable the Liverpool Corporation, acting by a Committee appointed for the purpose, to complete the Docks according to certain plans, which appear to differ considerably from those originally proposed, ss. 11 to 32.
3. To enable the owners of land, adjacent to parts of the works, to purchase rights in the wharf walls, on certain conditions, ss. 34 to 42.
4. To provide for giving effect to a certain agreement for the sale, by the Commissioners of Works, of a certain part of the North Reserve, s. 48.
5. To enable the Corporation to make a certain railway, and to take tolls, ss. 51 to 70.
6. To enable the Corporation to lease parts of the Birkenhead Docks Estate, for terms not exceeding 75 years, either at reserved rents, or fines, or both, s. 80.
7. To place the management of the Docks, as and when they are ready to receive shipping, in the hands of the Liverpool Dock Trustees, acting through their Committee, in the same way as is the case with the Liverpool Docks. The time at which the Docks are to be deemed ready, is to be fixed by resolution of the Town Council duly advertised, ss. 82 to 84.
8. The rates to be taken at the Birkenhead Docks to be the same as those taken at the Liverpool Docks, ss. 85 to 89.
9. To make provision for management of Bonding Warehouses and other matters connected with the Customs, ss. 92, 93; for the control of fires and lights, s. 94; for securing freight on warehoused goods, s. 95; for making bye-laws, ss. 96 to 98; for a dock police, and punishment of offences, ss. 99 to 107.
10. The Dock Trustees to have power to execute ordinary repairs; and also, if the Corporation fail to execute them, substantial repairs; and to charge them as expenses of management.
11. Rates paid by vessels using both the Liverpool Docks and the Birkenhead Docks to be apportioned between the Liverpool Docks Fund and the Birkenhead Docks Fund, by the Dock Trustees; and if the Corporation are dissatisfied with their decision, by the Mayor, the senior magistrate of Liverpool, and the Chairman of the Dock Committee, s. 113.
12. The Birkenhead Docks Estate, except Docks ready for shipping, is to be managed by the Liverpool Corporation; and all moneys received by them from or in respect of such Estate, are to be carried to a separate account, and, after paying expenses, to be applied in payment of interest on the bonds issued by the Corporation, under the Act of last Session and the present Bill. The surplus, if any, to be carried to the Liverpool Borough Fund, s. 114.

13. The Liverpool Corporation to be enabled to borrow (in addition to the sum borrowed or to be borrowed under the Act of last Session, which amounts to 1,643,000 l.) the sum of 450,000 l. for the purpose of completing Birkenhead Docks.

*Birkenhead Docks
Bill.*

In order to report on this Bill, it is necessary to recapitulate shortly the circumstances and history of the arrangement which it is intended to complete.

The first subjects which call for observation, are the constitution and duties of the Town Council, and the Dock Committee, and the other Authorities who exercise jurisdiction in the Port of Liverpool and Harbour of the Mersey.

Bodies exercising harbour jurisdiction in the Port of Liverpool.

The Town Council of Liverpool seem, originally, to have been, or to have claimed to be owners of the Port and Conservators of the Mersey. This title to the Conservancy was, however, successfully disputed. Under the Mersey Conservancy Act, 5 & 6 Vict. c. 110 (Local), a body of Conservators was appointed, consisting of the First Lord of the Admiralty, the Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, and the First Commissioner of Works. These great Officers of State act through an officer appointed by themselves, called the Acting Conservator; but they have no revenues; they undertake no works; and their powers are consequently exercised for the purpose of preventing injury to the navigation or to the interests they respectively represent, rather than of carrying on useful works, or improving the Harbour. The Acting Conservator is paid two-thirds of his salary by the Town Council of Liverpool, and one-third by the Dock Committee. Considering this circumstance, and considering also that he is appointed to look to the interests of the Crown and the Duchy in the shore, it may be doubtful whether he can be in any sense considered a representative of the Trade of the Port.

Conservancy.

The Town Council of Liverpool still exercise some jurisdiction in the River; they pay, as above mentioned, two-thirds of the Acting Conservator's salary; they appoint a water bailiff, and they remove sunken vessels, and other impediments to navigation; but it seems to be doubtful how far their powers extend; and since the passing of the Municipal Corporation Reform Act, which confined the application of Borough Funds to Borough purposes, it appears doubtful whether they have legal powers (unless where specially authorised by statute) to apply their Borough Fund, whether arising from dues on shipping or otherwise, to Harbour purposes. In former times they appear to have made and managed the Docks, to have carried on various works for the benefit of ships using the Harbour, and to have expended out of their Borough Fund large sums for those purposes. The tendency of recent legislation has been to commit all duties of this description to the Dock Trustees, and, notwithstanding the increase of the Town Dues (which are referred to below), to throw the expense of docks and harbour works on rates specially levied for the express purpose on ships and on goods carried in ships.

Liverpool Town Council.

The managers of the Liverpool Docks were originally the same body as the Liverpool Corporation. When the Docks were first commenced, they seem both to have granted land belonging to the Borough as sites for Docks, and to have devoted large sums out of the Borough Fund to Dock purposes, whilst the Dock rates were levied in aid and were required by the Acts which sanctioned them to be applied exclusively to shipping purposes. In later times the Dock expenses have been charged on Dock rates, and land belonging to the Corporation required for Dock purposes has been purchased from the Corporation for very large sums by the Dock Estate out of rates levied on trade and shipping.

Liverpool Dock
Trustees.

Before 1825, the Docks were managed by a Committee of 21 members of the Common Council, elected by the Common Council. In 1825, by 6 Geo. 4, c. 187, a distinct Dock Committee of 21 persons was appointed, of whom 13, including the Chairman, were elected by the Town Council, and eight only represented the Dock rate-payers. The Town Council, moreover, retained the power of annulling any act of the Dock Committee.

In 1851, a Bill for altering the constitution of the Dock Committee was introduced into Parliament. The opinion of the Admiralty, as well as of the Tidal Harbours Commission, is shown by the following extract from the Report of the Admiralty on this Bill:—

“With respect to the proposed change in the management, their Lordships never lose an occasion of bringing before Parliament the opinion expressed in

*Birkenhead Docks
Bill.*

“ the Report of the Tidal Harbour Commission, that the Government should be “ vested in the most responsible body that Parliament can devise, and that all “ rates and dues taken from shipping should be applied to facilitate trade, and “ not be diverted to any other purposes.”

The Bill, however, as passed, fixed the constitution of the Dock Committee as follows: 12 members are elected by the Council of the Borough, and 12 by the Dock rate-payers; but no person can be elected a member who has not both resided in or within eight miles of Liverpool for five years, and paid rates to the amount of 25 l. a year on his own account, or as an agent for persons residing in or near Liverpool. The Chairman, who has the casting vote, must be one of the members appointed by the Town Council. The Town Council retain the power of annulling every Act of the Dock Committee.

It is clear, therefore, that as between the Borough of Liverpool and the trading interests of that place the Dock Committee represent the former rather than the latter, whilst persons not resident at Liverpool, however deeply they may be interested in the traffic of the Port, have not and cannot have any voice upon the Dock Committee.

The Dock Committee have powers for managing the Estate of the Liverpool Docks; and they have also powers under various Acts of Parliament to manage the lights, buoys, and beacons in and near the mouth of the Mersey; and for these they levy separate rates.

Pilotage Commissioners.

Besides the above-mentioned bodies there is a body constituted, under the Act 6 Geo. 4, c. 73, for the management of Pilots and Pilotage, consisting of a Committee appointed by certain Commissioners, of whom the Town Council form part, and of whom the rest are self-elected. This body has full powers for the management of the Pilotage of and into the Mersey.

There is, therefore, no one body which, fairly representing the Trade of the Mersey, possesses all the powers and revenues necessary for the maintenance and management of the Harbour and its public docks and works; and that in order to form any such body the constitution and functions of the Dock Committee and other existing bodies must be entirely changed.

The Liverpool
Town Dues.

Another subject to which it is necessary to call attention is the Town Dues. These dues are, as is well known, levied by the Corporation on all ships and goods entering or leaving the old Customs Port of Liverpool, including the estuary of the Mersey, and in it the town of Birkenhead: they amount now, it is believed, to about 120,000 l. a-year.

The application of these Town Dues to the purposes of the town of Liverpool has long been the subject of complaint on the part of the producers and consumers in the interior, on whom they fall, and of the other places in the Mersey where goods are shipped or landed.

Among the opponents of the Town Dues, none suffered more severely or complained more constantly than the Proprietors of Birkenhead and its Docks.

Report of Shipping Dues Commission.

In the year 1854 the Royal Commissioners appointed to inquire into Local Charges on Ships and on Goods carried in Ships made their Report.

That Report was, so far as regards Liverpool and other places similarly situated, to the effect,

(1.) That a single body of Conservators should be constituted in each Harbour, to whom all powers necessary for the maintenance and government of the Harbour should be vested; and

(2.) That subject to the payment of debts, all property and revenues appropriated to the purposes of any public harbour, by whomsoever levied, should be transferred to the conservators of that harbour, and that all dues and tolls on ships, or on goods carried in ships, levied by any municipal or other town authorities, within the limits of any public harbour, should be transferred to the conservators of the public harbour within which they are levied.

Birkenhead
Docks.

It is unnecessary to give the history of the Birkenhead Docks. They were, as is well known, set on foot as an independent undertaking, and were always opposed as a rival by Liverpool. Their history is the history of one continued struggle with Liverpool.

Birkenhead
Docks Bills of 1855.

In 1855, six Bills relating to the Port of Liverpool and its Docks were introduced into Parliament.

By

By one it was proposed to carry into effect the recommendations of the Shipping Dues Commissioners, as above stated. This Bill was not proceeded with.

Birkenhead Docks Bill.

By another Bill, promoted by the Committee of the Liverpool Docks, it was proposed to enable that body to raise 3,500,000 l. on mortgage of their Rates, for the purpose of making new Docks on the north side of the River.

The other four Bills related to Birkenhead. They contained powers for amalgamating the several undertakings at Birkenhead, and for other purposes; but the principal object of their promoters was to relieve the trade of Birkenhead from the Liverpool Town Dues, and from certain payments to the Liverpool Dock Trustees.

These Bills were all referred to one Committee, and at first it appeared as if they would be vigorously contested. Means were however found to settle the differences.

The Committee on the Bills was strongly of opinion that there could be little hope for the success of the Birkenhead scheme so long as it was treated as antagonistic to Liverpool.

The Liverpool Corporation, aware of the Report of the Royal Commissioners, and having reason to believe that the subject of the Town Dues would be brought shortly before Parliament, entered into a treaty with Birkenhead for the purchase of the Birkenhead Docks, a treaty which, if completed, would not only give to Liverpool undisputed control of the trade on both sides the Mersey, but would silence the strongest opponents of the Town Dues. An agreement was accordingly made between the Birkenhead Dock Trustees and the Birkenhead Dock Company on the one hand, and the Liverpool Corporation on the other, by which the Corporation agreed to buy the Birkenhead Docks, and Birkenhead agreed to withdraw its Bills, and not to oppose the Liverpool Docks Bill. The Committee referred the matter to the Board for their Report. That Report was as follows:—

Proposal to purchase Birkenhead.

“Office of Committee of Privy Council for Trade,
Whitehall, 4 June 1855.

Report of Board of Trade on this proposal.

“Sir,

“I AM directed by the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade to inform you, that in compliance with the wish of the Select Committee of the House of Commons, of which you are Chairman, conveyed in your letter of the 25th ultimo, my Lords have carefully considered the questions raised by the various Bills relating to the Liverpool and Birkenhead Docks, especially with reference to the proposed arrangement for transferring the Birkenhead Docks to the Corporation of Liverpool, and in reply I am to submit to you the following observations.

“There are some discrepancies in points of detail between the clauses which have been laid before this Board by the parties, and those which have been submitted to the Committee, and by them forwarded to my Lords; but it does not appear necessary to make any special mention of them, as the following remarks are applicable to both.

“The scheme contained in the proposed clauses appears to be as follows:—

Outline of proposed scheme.

“1. That the Liverpool Corporation should purchase the Birkenhead Docks.

“2. That by way of consideration they shall give to the Birkenhead Dock Trustees and Dock Company, bonds charged upon the whole of their Borough Fund, including the Town Dues. The payments on these bonds, both of principal and interest, to be deferred for specified periods.

“3. That the Corporation shall appoint a Committee for managing the Birkenhead Docks.

“4. That the Corporation shall complete the works which the Birkenhead Dock Trustees and the Birkenhead Dock Company are compellable to complete, coming again to Parliament for new powers and with new plans.

“5. That separate accounts shall be kept of the receipts and expenditure of the Liverpool Corporation in respect of the Birkenhead Docks.

“6. That the Corporation shall, on being repaid all principal and interest, costs, and expenses incurred by them in respect of the Birkenhead Docks, be bound to transfer them to the Dock Trustees.

“7. That the Liverpool Docks Bill now before Parliament shall be proceeded with, and shall not be opposed by Birkenhead.

“In considering this scheme, my Lords have kept in view the recommendations of the Shipping Dues Commission, adverted to in their Report to the House of Commons on the Dock and Harbour Bills of this Session, since they deem it of great importance that any Recommendations of Shipping Dues Commission as applied to Liverpool.

arrangement

*Birkenhead Docks
Bill.*

arrangement that may be now sanctioned with respect to the Birkenhead Docks should not conflict with those recommendations, or be so made as to embarrass any measures which Parliament may see fit to adopt for carrying those recommendations into effect.

"As applicable to the Port of Liverpool, these recommendations are in substance as follows; that is to say:

"1. That a single body of Conservators should be appointed for the whole Harbour and its Docks, so constituted as fairly to represent all interests concerned in the trade of the Harbour.

"2. That the Dock Trustees should cease to levy Dock Dues or Tonnage Rates on vessels which do not use their docks.

"3. That subject to the just rights of existing creditors, the dues on shipping now received by the Corporation of Liverpool should (so far as may be necessary) be applied to Harbour purposes, and so far as may not be necessary for that purpose be abolished.

Harbour Conservancy and Town Dues.

"It would have been more satisfactory if the questions of the Harbour Conservancy and the Liverpool Town Dues could have been settled previously to, or simultaneously with the transfer of the Birkenhead Docks; but as there may be some doubt whether if the present agreement for the sale of the Birkenhead Docks (which is made contingent on the sanction of Parliament) be not confirmed, the various parties interested in those Docks can be again brought to concur in a like agreement, my Lords have applied themselves to consider in what mode the existing agreement for the transfer of the Birkenhead Docks may most advantageously be carried into effect, without prejudice to any measures respecting Conservancy and Town Dues which Parliament may hereafter think fit to adopt.

Birkenhead interests with respect to Town
Dues.

"With respect to the question of the Liverpool Town Dues, it is important to observe, that those who are interested in the property of the town of Birkenhead and its Docks, have hitherto been strongly interested in opposing the continuance of those dues, and their support has accordingly been relied on by other places having similar interests.

"The proposal to place the Birkenhead Docks in the hands of the town of Liverpool will transfer a portion of this support to the side of the upholders of these dues, and if a scheme (which, as my Lords are informed, is now under consideration) for the purpose of uniting the towns of Liverpool and Birkenhead in one great municipality be proceeded with, and receive the sanction of Parliament, the whole interest of Birkenhead will, instead of opposing, be enlisted in support of the Liverpool Town Dues. My Lords desire to call attention to this consideration, not in order to defeat any arrangement for the amalgamation of the interests of Birkenhead and Liverpool, but in order to point out how important it is, that in taking any steps towards such an amalgamation, full provision be made for protecting those interests which have no direct means of making themselves heard by the Committee.

Union of Liverpool and Birkenhead Docks under one management.

"As regards the more immediate object of the present arrangement, it appears to my Lords that no settlement of the Birkenhead Docks question can be satisfactory, which does not provide for placing the Docks on both sides of the river under one management with equality of rates, limited to such an amount as is required to defray all the expenses attendant on the construction and maintenance of the Docks.

Purchase of Birkenhead Docks by
Trustees.

"The simple and obvious course for effecting this object would seem to be, that the Liverpool Dock Trustees, and not the Liverpool Corporation, should buy up the Birkenhead Docks, complete them, and manage them in conjunction with the Liverpool Docks as one undertaking, provision being made for such a change in the body of Trustees as should make them fairly represent the interests of all parties.

Proposal of Liverpool Corporation to

"It is said that the Dock Trustees are not in command of funds which would enable them to make this purchase, and that the only mode by which the two undertakings on the Birkenhead side of the river can be rescued from their present state of insolvency and inaction is that now proposed, viz., that the Liverpool Corporation should step in, and availing themselves of the funds which the Town Dues (so long as they are continued) place at their disposal, make the purchase, complete the works in the most advantageous manner, and so soon as they are brought into a self-supporting state, hand them over to the Liverpool Dock Trustees upon being repaid the outlay which they will have incurred. The representatives of the Birkenhead Dock interests refuse, as my Lords are informed, to accept as a security for their purchase-money the funds of the Liverpool Dock Trustees, and the Liverpool Corporation, although they are ready, as the Mayor of Liverpool has informed my Lords, out of regard for the general interests of the Port of Liverpool, and without regard to the separate interests of the Corporation, to lend their aid for effecting an arrangement by which the Birkenhead Docks may be taken out of the hands of the present holders, and placed ultimately under the management of the Liverpool Dock Trustees, yet state that they would not feel justified in using the Borough Funds for this purpose, unless they could be guaranteed against any Borough rate being rendered necessary in respect of their outlay in the event of their Town Dues being taken from them.

"Adverting to the measure now promoted by the Liverpool Dock Trustees, under which they propose to raise 3,500,000 l. for New Docks, and to the present income of the Dock Trustees and the state of their existing debt; and considering also the influence which the proposed amalgamations must, as above mentioned, have on the views hitherto entertained by those interested in Birkenhead, my Lords find it difficult to believe that there can be any such inability on the part of the Liverpool Dock Trustees as is suggested by the promoters of the proposed arrangement, at once to raise the funds necessary for the purpose of enabling them them to make the purchase of the Birkenhead Docks, and to undertake their completion. Supposing, however, this to be so, and assuming for the moment that the Liverpool Town Dues may with propriety be made available for the purpose of facilitating the proposed arrangement, it appears to my Lords that the scheme proposed in the clauses that have been submitted to the Committee on the part of the Liverpool Corporation, is not the best that can be adopted for securing the object in view, and that it is open to some serious objections.

"In the first place there is no security that the proposed transfer to the Liverpool Dock Trustees will ever take effect.

"It has been stated by the Mayor of Liverpool that it is the intention of the Liverpool Corporation that the Birkenhead Docks, when purchased, shall be placed at once under the management of the Liverpool Dock Trustees, and that the rates in the two sets of Docks shall be equalised.

"There is, however, nothing in the clauses with respect to equalisation of rates; and as regards management, the only provision is that it shall be undertaken by a Committee appointed by the Liverpool Corporation. Nor is there anything to compel the Liverpool Dock Trustees to accept at any time a final transfer of the undertaking. On the other hand, the provisions for issuing the bonds which are to be the consideration for the purchase by the Corporation, imply that those bonds are to be a charge on the Liverpool Borough Fund, including the Town Dues, until the transfer to the Liverpool Dock Trustees is effected.

"If the Liverpool Docks may be carried on as a rival scheme, and no restriction is placed on their improvident extension in a northerly direction, it is by no means clear that the period will ever arrive at which it will be the interest of the Liverpool Dock Trustees to assume the purchase of the Birkenhead Docks on the terms proposed; and the Liverpool Corporation may thus be indefinitely confirmed, both in the possession and management of the Birkenhead Docks, and in the possession of their Town Dues.

"And even supposing the time to arrive when the Liverpool Dock Trustees are in a condition to assume the purchase, the funds required by them for this purpose would have to be raised on the credit of the Dock Dues; and with what propriety can the Dock Dues be burthened to repay to the Liverpool Corporation money which they have advanced, not out of its ordinary municipal revenue, but to a large extent at least out of the Town Dues upon trade and shipping.

"My Lords are, however, impressed with the great importance of securing the completion of the Birkenhead Docks, and placing them under one management with the Liverpool Docks, and they think that if the Liverpool Corporation lend the aid of their credit for this purpose, without proposing to derive any pecuniary benefit from the transaction, they may reasonably require that so long as they are burthened with the debt incurred for this purpose, the Town Dues shall not be taken from them without provision being made for relieving them from the debt.

"It appears to my Lords that the proposed purchase and transfer of the Docks may be accomplished by clauses embodying a scheme to the following effect:—

"1. Confirm the purchase made by the Liverpool Corporation.

"2. Place the Docks at once under the management of the Liverpool Dock Trustees.

"3. Complete the Works at present authorised under the respective Acts relating to the Birkenhead Docks within one year (or other limited period) from the end of next Session, unless otherwise provided by Parliament, the Liverpool Corporation raising the necessary funds upon Corporation bonds, each of such bonds to bear a distinct notice of the Act under the authority of which it is issued.

"4. Provide for equality of rates in the Birkenhead and Liverpool Docks.

"5. Keep a separate account of the rates in the Birkenhead Docks, and pay the amount, after deducting working expenses, to the Liverpool Corporation, until provision is made for paying the interest of the bonds given by the Corporation in satisfaction of the purchase-money of the Docks.

"6. Declare specifically that neither the Act nor the bonds issued under its authority shall prevent Parliament dealing with the Town Dues; provided that in any such dealing provision be made for keeping down so much of the interest thereafter accruing on the Corporation bonds in question, as the net income of the Docks shall be insufficient to pay, and for otherwise indemnifying the Corporation against any borough rate which they may be obliged to raise, or against any loss which their Borough Fund, exclusive of the Town Dues, may suffer in consequence of the purchase of the Birkenhead Docks.

"7. So soon as provision has been made for relieving the Liverpool Corporation from the principal and interest of the debt incurred in the purchase, and for indemnifying them against loss, the Docks to be transferred to the Dock Trustees.

"The above provisions may, if they meet the views of the Committee, and are assented to by the parties, be inserted in the "Birkenhead and Liverpool Docks Bill."

"In order to complete the arrangements my Lords would suggest that the following provisions should be introduced into the Bill promoted by the Liverpool Dock Trustees.

Birkenhead Docks Bill.

Objections to proposed scheme.

No security for completion of transfer.

When completed the Corporation are to be reimbursed for what they have expended out of the Town Dues in the purchase.

Propriety of indemnifying Corporation against actual loss.

Suggested scheme as regards the Corporation.

Suggestions as regards Trustees.

Birkenhead Docks Bill.

"Require the Liverpool Dock Trustees to come to Parliament next year with a Bill having the following objects:—

"1. The reconstitution of the Dock Trustees in such a manner as to represent not only Liverpool and Birkenhead, but all parties concerned in the trade of the Mersey.

"2. The revision of the limits of the Harbour.

"3. The better management and conservancy of the Harbour.

"4. The transfer of the Birkenhead Docks to the new body of Trustees, to be managed by them jointly with the Liverpool Docks as one undertaking, such transfer to be subject to the provision above mentioned for paying the income from the Birkenhead Docks to the Liverpool Corporation, until they are indemnified from loss in consequence of their proposed purchase.

"5. The completion, by the new Trustees, of so much of the Birkenhead Docks as shall be then unfinished, either according to the present plans, or according to such improved plans as shall be approved by Parliament.

"In order to compel the Liverpool Dock Trustees to abide by the above terms, any powers given to them by the Bill of this Session may be limited so as to render it impossible for them to make the proposed outlay for the North Docks without taking such steps as Parliament may think fit to impose for the completion of the Birkenhead Docks.

"In addition my Lords would suggest for the consideration of the Committee, whether it would not be desirable, in pursuance of the recommendation of the Shipping Dues Commission, and with a view to the interests of traders who resort to the Mersey without using either the Liverpool or the Birkenhead Docks, to take the present opportunity to exempt vessels not using the Liverpool Docks from all dues levied by the Liverpool Dock Trustees, except such dues as are applied for Harbour purposes.

"The Right Hon. Henry Labouchere, M.P., &c. &c. &c.

"I have, &c.
(signed) "James Booth."

In the end the Committee came to the following conclusions:—

Conclusions of the Committee on the Bills.

They refused to the Liverpool Dock Trustees power to extend their Docks on the Northern side of the Mersey as proposed, and confined the new powers of borrowing for which they sought to the sum of 850,000 £, instead of extending it to 3,500,000 £. as proposed.

They confirmed the arrangement for the purchase of the Birkenhead Docks; but inserted the following clauses in the Bill which passed as the Birkenhead Docks Act, 1855.

Management of Birkenhead
Docks.

Clause 17. "That so much and such parts of the undertaking (i.e. the Birkenhead Docks), by this Act vested in the Corporation of Liverpool, as are now completed, or as may be hereafter completed, shall, as and when the same are adapted to the accommodation of shipping, be managed by the Committee of the Liverpool Docks, who shall have and exercise all such rights, powers, and authorities in relation thereto, as if the same undertaking was vested in the Trustees of the Liverpool Docks under or by virtue of any of the Acts relating to those Trustees, and formed a part of their estate."

Committee to keep accounts.

Clause 18. "The said Committee shall keep separate accounts of their annual receipts arising out of the undertaking of the Corporation under this Act, and of their annual expenditure in relation thereto, which accounts shall be open to inspection at all reasonable times by the Council of the Borough of Liverpool or any Committee thereof, or by any person or persons appointed by them to inspect the same; and such accounts shall be annually audited in like manner as the accounts of the Trustees of the Liverpool Docks; and the annual surplus (if any) of the receipts arising out of the said undertaking, over and above the expenditure connected therewith, shall be paid over by the Committee to the Corporation, and shall be by them applied, so far as the same will extend, in and towards the payment of the interest accruing on the bonds issued by the Corporation for the purposes of their undertaking, and for carrying the same into effect, and in relief of the Borough Fund, so long as such bonds shall form a charge thereon."

Application to be made to Parliament in the next Session.

Clause 19. "And whereas it is expedient that the Birkenhead Docks should, with as little delay as possible, be constructed and completed in such manner as may render them most available for the commercial purposes of the Port of Liverpool in connexion with the Liverpool Docks, and that the same rates,
"due,"

"dues, and charges should be levied in respect of the Birkenhead Docks as are now or may hereafter be levied in respect of the Liverpool Docks, and that all the said Docks should be placed permanently under the same control and management, and be consolidated with, and become part of the existing estate of the Liverpool Docks; Be it therefore enacted, That the Corporation shall, and they are hereby required, either alone or conjointly with the Trustees of the Liverpool Docks, to prosecute a Bill in Parliament in the next Session for obtaining the requisite powers for accomplishing the several objects aforesaid."

Birkenhead Docks Bill.

Clause 26. "The Corporation shall keep separate and distinct accounts of all liabilities incurred and payments made by them on account of works and otherwise, and of principal and interest moneys, costs or expenses, and interest thereon respectively, in reference to their undertaking under this Act, and in bringing the same into operation, and of all sums received by them in respect of such undertaking."

Separate accounts to be kept.

Clause 27. "If at any time hereafter the Trustees of the Liverpool Docks shall be authorised by Parliament to become the purchasers of the undertaking by this Act vested in the Corporation, then, upon being repaid or adequately secured the repayment of all sums expended by them in the purchase or completion of the said undertaking, or in relation thereto, or for the payment of which they shall have become liable, and being paid or relieved from all liability, expense, or loss incurred by them for the purposes of the said undertaking or incident thereto, with interest thereon, or on such other terms as may be mutually agreed upon and approved by Parliament, the Corporation shall, and they are hereby required to transfer the said undertaking, as conferred upon the Corporation by this Act, to the said Trustees of the Liverpool Docks, together with all their powers, rights, privileges, and authorities in relation to the said undertaking, to the end that the same, and the future control and management thereof, may thereafter be vested in the said Trustees of the Liverpool Docks as part of the Dock Estate of Liverpool."

Corporation to transfer undertaking to the Trustees of the Liverpool Docks.

The Committee also inserted in the Bill promoted by the Liverpool Dock Trustees, which passed as the Liverpool Dock Act, 1855, the following clause:—

Clause 38. "Whereas a Bill is now pending in Parliament, having for its object (amongst other things) the sale of the Birkenhead Docks to the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of Liverpool, on certain terms and conditions therein set forth: And whereas it is expedient, after such sale shall have been perfected, that the said Birkenhead Docks should be transferred to the Trustees of the Liverpool Docks, and should, with as little delay as possible, be constructed and completed in such manner as may render them most available for the commercial purposes of the Port of Liverpool, in connexion with the Liverpool Docks, and that the same rates, dues, and charges should be levied in respect of the Birkenhead Docks, as are now or may hereafter be levied in respect of the Liverpool Docks, and that all the said Docks should be placed permanently under the same control and management, and be consolidated with and become part of the existing estate of the Liverpool Docks: "Be it therefore enacted, That the Trustees shall, and they are hereby required, either alone or conjointly with the Corporation of Liverpool, to prosecute a Bill in Parliament in the next Session, for obtaining the requisite powers for accomplishing and giving full effect to the several objects aforesaid."

Application to be made to Parliament in the next Session for giving effect to certain objects herein named.

The Committee further made a Special Report, which was as follows:—

Special Report of Committee.

"The Committee on Group (D.) of Private Bills, in considering the Liverpool Docks Bill and the Birkenhead Docks and Liverpool Docks Bill referred to them, have come to the conclusion that it is of great importance that an amalgamation should take place of the Birkenhead and Liverpool Docks on both sides of the river, under the control of one public body.

"In lending their assistance to promote and effect this amalgamation, the Committee have not been able to provide for all the points which must ultimately

*Birkenhead Docks
Bill.*

“mately be arranged with regard to it, and which it is proposed should be finally settled in a Bill to be introduced in the next Session. They are however desirous of specially calling attention to the following subjects:—

1. “That the earliest opportunity should be taken of carefully considering the constitution of the Dock Trust, with reference to the altered circumstances in which it will be placed in consequence of this amalgamation.

2. “That they should have provided for the immediate equalisation of the rates of both sides of the river, with the full concurrence of the promoters of the Bill, had they not been apprehensive that, on technical grounds, the passing of measures which they considered of urgent public advantage during the present Session would have been endangered.

3. “That they were very sensible of the importance of accurately defining and limiting the arrangements consequent on the proposed transfer of the Birkenhead property from the Liverpool Corporation to the Dock Trustees; but as the whole matter will necessarily come under the consideration of Parliament next Session, they are unwilling to prejudge this particular part of it.

4. “That the question of the Liverpool Town Dues only came incidentally before the Committee as a portion of the existing revenues of the Corporation. It has been their object not to prejudge, or affect in any manner, either the title of the Corporation or the general question of the propriety of future legislation with regard to municipal changes of this character.”

It is a fact which my Lords think particularly worthy of attention, that the Corporation of Manchester, although Manchester was deeply interested in the subject, was held to have no locus standi before the Committee, and that therefore, when the Birkenhead interest was bought by the borough of Liverpool, there was no party before the Committee to represent the interest of the public, so far as that interest was opposed to the interest of the town of Liverpool.

Points remaining to be provided for.

The Committee of last year, as is shown by what has been stated, contemplated further legislation. The following are the objects to which, as it appears to my Lords, that legislation should be directed, and with which the Committee of last year would have dealt had it then been possible to do so.

1. The equalisation of rates in the Liverpool and Birkenhead Docks respectively.
2. The placing the Docks under the management of one Dock Committee.
3. The completion of the Birkenhead Docks upon the plan best suited to the wants of the port and the public.
4. The transfer of the Birkenhead Dock Estate to the Liverpool Dock Trustees.
5. The reconstitution of the Liverpool Dock Committee, and an extension of its powers, so that it may represent, not the borough of Liverpool, nor the Dock ratepayers resident in Liverpool only, but all persons having an interest in the Docks and trade of the Mersey.

Meaning of the arrangements of last Session as regards Birkenhead
Dock Estate.

Further, it appears to my Lords that the object of giving the Liverpool Corporation power to pledge their Borough Fund for the purchase of the Birkenhead Docks, was simply to provide a security for the completion of the sale of the Birkenhead Docks by their then owners, which was a necessary preliminary to the amalgamation of the Birkenhead Docks with the Liverpool Docks. It was clearly intended that the Liverpool Corporation should be simply Trustees of the Birkenhead Dock Estate for the benefit of the public, in the same way that the Dock Trustees would have been, if the purchase had been made by them; and that, except so far as might be necessary to indemnify them from loss, they should not derive any benefit from the rates to be levied at the Birkenhead Docks, or from the rents or profits of the purchased estate.

As regards Liverpool Town Dues.

As regards the Liverpool Town Dues, which are now under the consideration of Parliament, it was distinctly intended that Parliament should not be prejudiced in any course it might think fit to adopt. The question concerning the Town Dues is, and always has been, whether they should (if and so far as they continue to exist) be applied to Borough purposes or to shipping purposes. Should Parliament decide on the latter alternative, the debt incurred for for the purchase of Birkenhead will seriously interfere with the carrying such decision into effect, unless the Birkenhead Dock Estate is distinctly declared to be the property of the public and not of the Corporation, and unless the claim of the Liverpool Corporation to indemnity on account of the debt incurred in the purchase is confined to such proportion of the debt as may fall on the Borough Fund, exclusive of the Town Dues.

Birkenhead Docks Bill.

It remains to see how far the Bill now before Parliament carries into effect the objects above stated, and fulfils the intentions of the arrangement of last Session.

Effect of present Bill.

1st. As regards the equalisation of rates. This object appears to be sufficiently provided for. The opponents of the Bill state that large tracts of land were granted on condition that there should be no wharfage dues. Upon this point my Lords have no information, and they have no doubt the facts will be fully brought before the Committee.

1. Equalisation of rates.

2d. As regards placing the management of the Birkenhead Docks, when completed, in the hands of the Liverpool Dock Committee. This object appears to be also sufficiently provided for.

Management of Birkenhead Docks.

3d. The completion of the Docks and Works upon the plan best suited to the wants of the public. The Bill contains provisions for this purpose. Upon the nautical and engineering questions which they involve, it is for the Admiralty, and not for this Board, to give an opinion to the House. The only observation my Lords have to offer, and which, considering who are the promoters of the Bill, deserves especial consideration, is, that the plans to be adopted should be such as may best meet the wants, not merely of the town of Liverpool, but of all persons in the country who are interested in the trade of the Mersey.

Completion of the Works.

4th. As regards the transfer of the Birkenhead Dock Estate to the Liverpool Dock Trustees, so that both may form one property and one public trust. This was distinctly required by the Acts of last Session, and no provision whatever is made for it. The promoters of the Bill state that it would have been done, but that the Trustees of the Liverpool Docks are not in a financial position to assume the debt already contracted for this purchase, or to become liable to the additional debt to be contracted for the completion of the Works. My Lords are not in a position to judge on what terms the Liverpool Dock Trustees can procure money; but they are as little able now as they were last year to reconcile this alleged inability of the Liverpool Dock Trustees to raise a million and a half or two millions for the purchase and completion of Birkenhead Docks with the proposal of the Dock Trustees (rejected by Parliament last year) to raise three millions and a half for making new Docks on the Liverpool side of the Mersey.

Transfer of Birkenhead Docks to Liverpool Dock Estate.

5th. As regards the reconstitution of the Liverpool Dock Committee. This point, taken in connexion with the other features of the case, appears to my Lords to be of the utmost importance. It is sufficiently clear from what has been already stated, that there is no Dock or Harbour Authority to represent the interests of trade in the Mersey; that the Liverpool Dock Committee represent the interests of Liverpool rather than those of the trade of the Port; that the Town Council have an absolute veto on the proceedings of the Dock Committee; that the interests of the Corporation may be, and often are, opposed to those of the Trade of the Port; as, for instance, in the matter of the Town Dues, and in the matter of the sales of land by the Corporation to the Dock Estate. It is clear that the evils arising from this state of things will be aggravated if the Birkenhead Docks Estate either remains in the hands of the Corporation, or is transferred to the Liverpool Dock Committee, without any change in the organisation of the latter body.

Reconstitution of the Dock Committee.

The Bill however contains no provision whatever on this subject.

The effect of these omissions, taken in connexion with the provisions contained in the Bill and the Acts of last Session, appears to be as follows:

General effect of these omissions in the Bill.

The Corporation will have in their own hands, except so far as they may be controlled by the plans approved by Parliament, the completion of the Works and the manner in which they shall be executed. It rests with them to state at what period the management shall be handed over to the Liverpool Dock Committee.

*Birkenhead Docks
Bill.*

Committee. Even when that is done, the ratepayers at the Birkenhead Docks will not be represented on the Liverpool Dock Committee, and Liverpool will therefore not only own, but manage Birkenhead Docks. As regards the future transfer of the Birkenhead Docks and the Birkenhead Dock Estate to the Liverpool Dock Trustees, there is no specific provision in any of the Acts requiring the Borough to part with them; and the Liverpool Dock Trust, as now constituted, neither can nor will seek to enforce the transfer against the wish of the Corporation. Notwithstanding the obvious intention to the contrary of the arrangements of last Session, there is nothing to prevent the Corporation from treating the Birkenhead Dock Estate as property from which the Corporation may derive pecuniary benefit. On the contrary, it is specially provided that the surplus rates shall be paid into the Borough Fund; and although under the Act of last Session separate accounts must be kept, there is nothing which distinctly makes the Corporation Trustees of the Estate for the Public; nothing which confines their beneficial interest to indemnifying the Corporation for the debt incurred for the purchase; nothing which states to what part of their Borough Fund that indemnity shall extend, if Parliament thinks fit to apply the Town Dues to shipping purposes. If the Bill passes as it stands, Liverpool may, if the Birkenhead Docks turn out a losing speculation, come to Parliament in concert with the Dock Trustees, under the clauses in the Act of last Session, to throw the burden on the Liverpool Dock ratepayers. If, as is more probable, the purchase turns out a profitable bargain, the Borough of Liverpool may retain the Dock Estate and claim the profits (arising, it is to be observed, for the most part, if not entirely, from taxes on trade) for its Borough Fund.

As regards the Town Dues, the effect of the purchase of Birkenhead Docks must be, at all events, to get rid of the Birkenhead opposition, and to embarrass any mode of dealing with the Dues which can be suggested. And it may perhaps throw more serious difficulties in the way. As long as the Birkenhead Docks are a source of expense, it will no doubt be represented that that expense is a fair charge on funds which arise from dues on shipping and trade. Should the Docks become profitable, it may be represented (notwithstanding the contrary intention of the arrangements of last Session), that having been bought by a charge on funds which, at the time of the purchase, were the property of the Corporation, they are part of the corporate property, and must, even should the Town Dues be afterwards abolished, be dealt with accordingly. In the latter case the purchase effected by the Corporation would be a very profitable investment of the anticipated Town Dues.

My Lords are of course not acquainted with the intentions of the Liverpool Corporation in the matters above referred to, and cannot say what use may be made by them of the powers for which they seek; but my Lords think it their duty to call attention to all points in which, as it appears to them, the rights and interests of the public are not so provided for by the express terms of the Acts of last Session and the present Bill as to enable parties interested, if occasion for so doing should unfortunately arise, to enforce those rights and interests against the Corporation in a court of law.

Land belonging to the Corporation at Birkenhead.

There is one other subject to which my Lords wish to call attention. The Liverpool Corporation, when Docks at Birkenhead were first proposed, are said to have purchased a large quantity of land at Birkenhead. When the Birkenhead Dock scheme was a second time brought forward, they are said to have sold long leases of a large part of this land for very high prices, and then to have strongly opposed the Birkenhead Dock scheme. Whether this land now forms part of the Birkenhead Dock Estate, and is again in the hands of the Corporation, and whether the Corporation have since parted with the whole of their land and reversion at Birkenhead, and if so, on what terms, my Lords cannot say; but they think it right to call attention to the point, both for the purpose of illustrating the relations of the Corporation to the Dock Estate, and also because, should such land be hereafter required for Dock purposes, it is not right that the Corporation, acting as Trustees of the Docks for the public, should purchase of themselves.

Suggestions.

Looking to the whole case as above stated, my Lords suggest that distinct provisions should be inserted in the Bill to the following effect:

1. A declaration to the effect, that the Birkenhead Docks and all the estate and property transferred to the Corporation under the Acts of last Session, are held by them not as corporate property, but as trustees for the public.

2. A distinct

2. A distinct provision to the effect, that the Liverpool Corporation and the Liverpool Dock Trustees shall next Session introduce a Bill to effect the following objects:—

*Birkenhead Docks

a. The reorganisation of the Liverpool Dock Trust on such principles as that it may represent the whole trade of the Mersey.

b. The transfer of the Birkenhead Docks and all the estates and property purchased by the Liverpool Corporation, under the Acts of last Session, to the new body of Trustees or Conservators, so, however, that the Liverpool Corporation shall, upon such transfer, be entitled to indemnity out of the Dock rates, or other revenues of the Trustees or Conservators, for any loss to which their Borough Fund, exclusive of the Town Dues, may be subjected by reason of the purchase and completion of Birkenhead Docks, all sums received by them in respect of such Docks and Dock Estate being duly accounted for.

3. The notices for the proposed Bill of next Session to be so framed as to enable Parliament to consider the propriety of vesting all duties connected with the Conservancy, Lights, and Pilotage of the Harbour in the body of Conservators to be thereby constituted.

Bournemouth Improvement Bill, 1856.

Bournemouth Improvement Bill.

This Bill proposes to appoint Commissioners for Lighting and Improving the District of St. Peter, Bournemouth, for erecting a Market House, &c., and for constructing a Pier there.

For these purposes they are empowered to levy rates:—

- 1st. A "General Improvement Rate" on the houses;
- 2d. Market Tolls for the use of the Market;
- 3d. Pier Tolls for the use of the Pier.

The Tolls are thrown into a general fund, and there is no provision that the Pier Tolls shall be applied exclusively to the purposes of the Pier. It is possible that the Pier Tolls may not be sufficient to maintain it; but it is also possible that they may be more than sufficient for that purpose.

Adverting to the recommendations contained in the Board of Trade Report on the Dock and Harbour Bills of last Session, to the effect that taxes levied on ships or on goods carried in ships should be applied to shipping purposes, my Lords think it right to suggest to the Committee, whether it may not be desirable to require that separate accounts be kept of the Pier Tolls, and that all those tolls be applied to the purposes of the Pier.

There are in this Bill no such provisions as are recommended in the Report of the Board of Trade on the Dock and Harbour Bills of last Session, for the following purposes:—

For the publication of accounts.

For the audit of accounts by an independent auditor, in case of complaint.

For the reservation of the clauses of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, relating to pilotage, lights, buoys, and beacons, and the rights, powers, and privileges of the General Lighthouse Authorities.

For the reservation of the operation of any existing or future General Act relating to docks, harbours, or dues on shipping.

*Broadstairs
Harbour and Pier
Bill.*

Broadstairs Harbour and Pier Bill, 1856.

The objects of this Bill are :

To appoint Commissioners ;

To empower them to erect a new Pier or Landing Place ;

To enable them to borrow 40,000 l.

To take the rates specified in the Schedules, and in the event of the receipts from this source being insufficient for the purposes of the Act, to levy a parish rate on the inhabitants.

The Commissioners are to be elected by the ratepayers of the parish. Where the Harbour is to be used for trading purposes, it appears desirable that traders using the Harbour should have a voice in the election ; but it is a question whether the circumstances admit of this being done at Broadstairs ; and as in this case any deficiency of the Pier and Harbour Dues is to be made good by a parish rate, it seems reasonable that the Commissioners should be a body in whom the ratepayers have confidence.

The Table of Rates includes a duty of 1 s. a ton on coals, culm, splint, coke, or cinders, brought by land through the parish, upon which no other duty has been paid under the Act. This is not consistent with clause 34, which authorises the rates to be levied "in respect of vessels entering or using the "Harbour." The objection in principle to charging land-borne coal with harbour dues, is, perhaps, in the present case not of much force, as it is proposed that a rate on the inhabitants should make good any deficiency of the Pier and Harbour Dues. The rate in either case would fall mainly on the same persons.

The Bill contains a clause (45) making the owners of boats employed in assisting vessels in distress liable to pay one-half part of one equal share of the profits arising thereby to the Commissioners.

It is not clear what is meant by one equal share of the profits.

It is to be observed that there are no such provisions as are suggested in the Report of the Board of Trade on the Harbour Bills of last Session, for the following purposes, viz :—

For the publication of accounts.

For the audit of accounts by an independent auditor in case of complaint.

For the reservation of the clauses of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, relating to pilotage, lights, buoys, and beacons, and to the powers, rights, and privileges of the General Lighthouse Authorities ; and,

For the reservation of the operation of any existing General Act relating to harbours or dues on shipping.

*Cork Bridges,
Waterworks, &c.
Bill.*

Cork Bridges, Waterworks, &c. Bill, 1856.

The object of this Bill, so far as regards matters in which the Board of Trade is concerned, is to revive a tax on imported Coal, formerly levied for the support of the Foundling Hospital at Cork, but recently abolished, and to apply the proceeds in raising a fund for removing certain old Bridges, and building new Bridges.

Referring to the Report of the Board of Trade on the Dock and Harbour Bills of last Session, it appears that this tax is entirely at variance with the principles therein recommended.

It is understood that the promoters intend to abandon this part of the Bill.

*Dundee Harbour
Bill.*

Dundee Harbour Bill, 1856.

The object of this Bill is to enable the Trustees of Dundee Harbour to make certain alterations in the Tidal Harbour of Victoria Dock, and to borrow an additional sum of 65,000 l., and to alter the rates now levied by the Trustees. No observations appear necessary as regards this Bill.

Ely

*Ely Tidal Harbour Bill, 1856.Ely Tidal Harbour
Bill.*

The objects of this Bill are to incorporate a Company with powers for the following purposes, viz. :—

The construction of a line of railway from the Taff Vale Railway at Clanyrafon to the north-east bank of the River Ely, a distance of about six miles.

The embanking, widening, deepening, and improving of that part of the River Ely, between a point about 1,012 yards below Cogan Pill, and a point 3,168 yards above the said Pill.

The construction of an embankment on or adjacent to Penarth Flats, commencing at about 1,012 yards below Cogan Pill, and extending northwards for about 1,012 yards.

Clauses 48 to 52 provide for the regulation of pilotage. Clause 52 exempts vessels bound to or from Ely Harbour from being compelled to employ a Channel pilot, licensed by the Bristol authorities.

This compulsory pilotage at present extends to all foreign-going ships bound up or down the Channel. The system has long been a subject of complaint on the part of other ports in the Channel, and an endeavour is now being made, under the powers given by the 333d section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," to form by delegation from the various ports one common pilotage authority for the Channel, with a common body of qualified pilots, so as to combine efficiency, economy, and local management. To grant a special exemption to vessels bound to a particular port would throw difficulties in the way of any such general arrangement.

It is not clear whether section 64, taken with the preceding sections, is intended to give the Company the exclusive right of providing or removing ballast; if so, it will be a question for the Committee whether, having regard to the recommendations contained in the Report of the Board of Trade on the Dock and Harbour Bills of last Session, and in the Report of the Royal Commissioners appointed to inquire into Local Charges on Shipping, the price should not be fixed in such a way as to prevent the rates from becoming too high.

Section 39, which authorises increased charges by agreement for the conveyance of goods by passenger trains, does not contain the usual exception, "other than small parcels," which exception seems reasonable, since the higher rate of charge authorised by the Bill for small parcels appears to be sufficient to entitle the public to the conveyance of such parcels by passenger trains, and it is of importance to the public that they should be so conveyed.

By section 67 it is proposed to empower the new Company to enter into agreements with the Taff Vale Railway Company for the working of the proposed railway by that Company. Sections 69 and 70 allow the period of 21 years for the duration of such agreements. In conformity with the recommendation of the Select Committee of the House of Commons on Railway and Canal Bills, in 1853, it has been the practice in the last two Sessions generally to limit the duration of such arrangements to 10 years.

Gravesend Improvement Bill, 1856.Gravesend Improvement Bill.

The general object of this Bill is to make certain improvements in the Town of Gravesend. For these purposes, the Gravesend Improvement Commissioners are to be empowered to borrow 10,000*l.* on the security of the rates to be levied under the Act, and also of their other property and effects.

The Royal Commissioners appointed to inquire into Local Charges on Shipping, not having reported on the Port of London, it is not known whether any of the property, on which the 10,000*l.* is to be charged, consists of dues on ships, or on goods carried in ships.

If this should be the case, it will be a question for the Committee whether such dues should be charged with debts for town purposes, and whether at any rate the operation of the Act 16 & 17 Vict. c. 131, s. 24, should not be reserved.

Isle of Wight Steam Bridge and Approaches Bill.

Isle of Wight Steam Bridge and Approaches Bill, 1856.

The object of this Bill is to make a ferry, with a floating steam bridge, between Stokes Bay and Ryde, and to establish a company for the purpose.

There are in this Bill no such provisions as are recommended in the Board of Trade Report on the Dock and Harbour Bills of last Session, for the publication of accounts, or for the revision of rates and tolls.

Kirkwall Harbour Amendment Act.

Kirkwall Harbour Amendment Act, 1856.

This Bill enables the Trustees of the Harbour to improve the Harbour, and to borrow money for the purpose, and fixes a new scale of charges. As regards this Bill, it is to be observed that it does not contain such provisions as are recommended in the Report of the Board of Trade on the Dock and Harbour Bills of last Session, for the following purposes, viz.:

For the publication of accounts.

For the audit of accounts by an independent auditor in case of complaint.

For the reservation of the clauses of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, relating to pilotage, lights, buoys and beacons, and the rights, powers and privileges of the General Lighthouse Authorities; and,

For the reservation of the operation of any existing or future General Act relating to docks, harbours, or dues on shipping.

London Dock Company.

London Dock Company Bill, 1856.

The object of this Bill is to enable the London Dock Company to borrow, or to raise by the creation of additional capital or stock, the sum of 200,000-l.

Upon this Bill it is only to be observed, that there are no such provisions as are suggested in the Report of the Board of Trade on the Harbour Bills of last Session, for the following purposes, viz.:

For the publication of accounts.

For the audit of accounts by an independent auditor in case of complaint.

For the revision of rates; and

For the reservation of the operation of 16 & 17 Vict. c. 131, s. 24.

*North Shields and Tynemouth Dock
Bill.*

North Shields and Tynemouth Dock Bill, 1856.

The objects of this Bill are to appoint Commissioners for constructing a Dock on the north side of the entrance to the River Tyne, and to give them the necessary powers for this purpose.

The fitness of this scheme, in an engineering point of view, is a matter upon which my Lords have no means of forming an opinion, but they cannot doubt that Docks at the mouth of the Tyne would, if they can be constructed without injury to the navigation of the Tyne, be very beneficial to trade.

There are in this Bill no such provisions as are recommended in the Report of the Board of Trade on the Dock and Harbour Bills of last Session for the following purposes, viz. :—

For the publication of accounts.

For the audit of accounts by an independent auditor in case of complaint.

For the reservation of the clauses of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, relating to pilotage, lights, buoys, and beacons, and the rights, powers, and privileges of the General Lighthouse Authorities.

Perth Burgh and Harbour Bill, 1856.Perth Burgh and Harbour Bill

The objects of this Bill, so far as the Board of Trade is concerned, are,—

1st. To transfer the powers of the Harbour Commissioners to the Town Council.

2d. To fix a new scale of charges.

3d. To provide for the payment of debts now charged on the revenues of the Harbour Commissioners and of the Town.

It appears that the Harbour Commissioners have contracted a large debt, which the Harbour Revenues are unable to pay, and which is charged by way of collateral security on the Town Revenues. The Town Revenues are also charged with a separate debt. The Bill proposes to make both the Harbour and Town Revenues chargeable with both debts, and to raise whatever additional sum may be needed for payment of the debt by a rate on the inhabitants. It therefore appears probable that the proposed arrangement will be beneficial to trade, and, if so, the public cannot, as against the ratepayers of the town, have any interest in opposing it. It is, however, deserving of the consideration of the Committee, whether it is not expedient that there should be some provision requiring separate accounts of the Harbour Revenues to be kept, and also requiring that if the Harbour Revenues ever become sufficiently large to do more than pay their own share of the debt, the surplus shall be applied either to Harbour purposes, or in reduction of Harbour Dues.

*Stotfield and Lossiemouth Harbour Improvement Bill, 1856.Stotfield and Lossiemouth Harbour

This Bill enables the Stotfield and Lossiemouth Harbour Company to improve their Harbour, and to raise 30,000*l.* by new shares, and 10,000*l.* by loan; and fixes a new scale of charges.

No observations occur on this Bill, except that, in clause 62, the words "Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1855," should be substituted for "Merchant Law Amendment Shipping Act, 1855."

*Thames Haven, Dock and Railway Bill, 1856.Thames Haven, Dock and Railway
Bill.*

The objects of this Bill are to give to the Company, originally established for the purpose of making a Railway and Dock, power to make a Dock near the present Terminus and Pier of the London, Tilbury, and Southend Railway, at Shellhaven Creek, on the north bank of the Thames; to make certain arrangements as to the capital of the Company; and to enable the Company to make working arrangements with the Eastern Counties and London and Blackwall Railway Companies.

Adverting to the recommendations contained in the Report of the Board of Trade on the Dock and Harbour Bills of last Session, it is to be observed, that this Bill contains no provision—

For the publication of accounts.

For the audit of accounts by an independent auditor in case of complaint.

For the revision of rates.

For the reservation of the operation of any existing or future General Act relating to docks, harbours, or dues on shipping.

The arrangements between the Railway Companies and the Dock Company are not made subject to the conditions as to limiting the duration of the agreements, and requiring the assent of the Shareholders that are commonly required in the case of agreements between Railway Companies or a Railway and a Canal Company.

EDGAR A. BOWRING,
Registrar.

Sir,

South Sea House, 12 August 1853.

I AM desired by the Governor and Court of Assistants of the Russia Company to forward to you the enclosed papers concerning the establishment of the Company, according to the desire which you expressed to me when I had the honour of waiting upon you at the office of the Board of Trade.

I have, &c.

Enclosure, No. 1.

LETTERS Patent were granted to the Russia Company by Philip & Mary, dated 26th February, in the first and second years of their reign.

By an Act of Parliament passed in the eighth year of Elizabeth, entitled “An Act for the Incorporation of the Fellowship of English Merchants for Discovery of New Trades,” it was enacted that this should be the designation of the company, and continue a perpetual body in deed and name. Copies of Charter and Act of Elizabeth enclosed.

An Act of the 10 & 11 Will. 3, c. 6, Anno Domini 1699, was passed to extend the trade to Russia. After reciting the before-mentioned Letters Patent and Act of Parliament confirming them, it was enacted, that from and after the 25th March 1699, every subject of the realm desiring admission into the company should pay 5 l. and no more.*

The Table of Dues received by the company on the importation of goods imported from St. Petersburg, Cronstadt, Narva, Onega, and Archangel is enclosed.

The dues are received at the port of London by the secretary of the company, and at the outports by the receivers of the revenue, or their clerks, amounting to, in round numbers, from 1,800 l. to 2,000 l. per annum.

There are no dues received on the exportation of goods, nor on goods sent to this country in transit.

It will appear on reference to the Table of Dues that they are at an extremely low rate, and little more than nominal; they are not taken on trifling articles, nor are persons called upon to become free of the company unless they are engaged in the Russia trade. By far the greater amount of dues are paid by members of the Court of Assistants.

The

* Since the year 1835, only 3 l. 2 s. 6 d. has been charged, which is paid to the Crown for stamp duty.

The following papers, published under the authority of Parliament, set forth the various particulars in respect of the receipts of disbursements of the Company; viz., No. 303, Session 1836; No. 558, dated 12th August 1836; No. 90, dated 26th February 1850.

The Russia Company have an agent at St. Petersburg, and one at Elsinour, from whom they receive all necessary information regarding the trade of the two countries.

From Elsinour is forwarded a list, two or three times a week, of all vessels that pass the Sound, particularising any disasters, wrecks, &c. &c. that may come to his knowledge; these lists are sent to the Baltic Coffee-house, where the merchants, brokers, and other persons attend who are concerned in the Russia trade, and all information so received is instantly made known to the public.

Her Majesty's Consul at St. Petersburg is the commercial agent of the Company, and derives fully one-half of his official salary from this appointment.

The agent at St. Petersburg superintends the affairs of the chapels at that place, as well as those at Cronstadt and Mosco, towards the erection of which the Company have largely contributed.

The Company contribute to the maintenance of chaplains at all these places, as well as at Archangel, where a new chapel is about to be erected, and also one at Solambol, for the use of sailors, and it is in contemplation to erect a hospital for the benefit of sailors. For the two former the company have voted a considerable sum of money, and have promised to aid in the erection of the latter.

A school is also established at St. Petersburg under the auspices of the Company, at which a thorough education is afforded, under the care and supervision of the company's chaplain, the Rev. Dr. Law.

Allusion having been made to the Levant and African Companies which have been abolished, it may be as well to point out in what respects the Russia Company essentially differs from these defunct bodies.

Its peculiarity is, that it represents in this country a large colony of British subjects, established in the cities of St. Petersburg and Mosco, and in the ports of Cronstadt and Archangel.

The British subjects in St. Petersburg alone amount to about 3,000; and this number is constantly increasing, from the influx of artisans and their families who are hired by the Russian manufacturers.

The Levant and African Companies did not represent any large colony of English merchants resident abroad, and had no church establishment, but only an occasional chaplain at Smyrna; they had, however, considerable patronage in the appointment of consuls and agents with large salaries, derived from the onerous dues levied on the trade.

The Russia Company and the British Factory at St. Petersburg have been always closely connected; they have been repeatedly acknowledged by the Imperial Government, and have from time to time received assurance of His Imperial Majesty's favour.

It is understood that the port charges are levied at Cronstadt, with the sanction of the Russia Company and under the authority of its charter. Of these a certain sum is levied under the title of Church Money, which is fully explained in the letter of Mr. Dye, the treasurer to the British Factory, a copy of which is enclosed.

To the profitable carrying on of the Russia trade, it has always been deemed essential that English houses should exist in Russia. The difficulty of the language, and of acquiring a knowledge of the people, demand a long residence there.

Englishmen of respectability will not willingly establish themselves in a country where they have no certain provision for the exercise of their religious duties; and one effect of the breaking up of the church establishment of the Russia Company would probably be the abandonment to the German and the Greek, of those advantages which the British merchant now possesses, in having establishments in Russia.

To sum up the advantages of the present system, if it provide a church establishment in Russia, in favour and support of which British residents of all religious persuasions agree to waive their doctrinal differences; if under its operation the poor of the increasing communities of British subjects are supported, ported, and the education of the young provided for; if it afford the means of union and common action in all cases where the interests of trade may be affected by political events, then it would be peculiarly undesirable at the present juncture to break up this association, which it would be impossible to revive under another form.

Enclosure, No. 2.

That they, by the name of merchants' adventurers of England, for the discovery of lands, territories, isles, dominions, and seigniories unknown, and not before their late adventure, or enterprize, by seas or navigation commonly frequented as aforesaid, shall be from henceforth, one body and perpetual fellowship, and commonalty, of themselves, both in deed and in name; and them by the names of merchants' adventurers for the discovery of lands, territories, isles, and seigniories unknown, and not by the seas and navigations before their said late adventure or enterprize by seas and navigation commonly frequented, We do incorporate, name, and declare by these presents; and that the same fellowship and commonalty from henceforth shall be, and may have, one governour of the said fellowship and commonalty of merchants' adventurers.

And in consideration that the before named Sebastian Cabotto hath been the chiefest setter forth of this journey or voyage, therefore We make, ordain, and constitute him, the said Sebastian, to be the first and present governour of the same fellowship and commonalty, by these presents: To have and enjoy the same office of governour to him the said Sebastian Cabotto during his natural life, without amoving or dismissing from the same roome.

And furthermore, We grant unto the said fellowship and commonalty, and their successors, that they the said fellowship and commonalty, and their successors after the decease of the said Sebastian Cabotto, shall and may, freely and lawfully, in places convenient and honest assemble themselves together, or so many of them as will or can assemble together, as well within Our said city of London, as elsewhere it shall please them, in such sort and manner as other worshipful corporations of Our said city have used to assemble; and there yearly name, elect, and choose one governour, or two governours of themselves, at their liberty and pleasure.

And also, as well yearly during the natural life of the said Sebastian Cabotto, now governour, as also at the election of such said governour or governours after his decease, to choose, name, and appoint eight-and-twenty of the most sadde, discreet, and honest persons of the said fellowship and commonalty of merchants' adventurers as above specified, and four of the most expert and skilful persons of the same twenty-eight to be named and called consulls, and twenty-four, the residue, to be named and called assistants, to the said governour, or governours and consulls for the time being, which shall remain and stand in their auctorities for one whole year then next following.

And if it shall fortune the said governour or governours, consulls and assistants, or any of them so to be elected and chosen as is aforesaid, to dye within the year after his or their election, that then and so often it shall and may be lawful, to and for the said fellowship and commonalty to elect and choose of themselves other governour or governours, consulls and assistants, in the place and stead of such as so shall happen to dye, to serve out the same year.

And further, We make, ordain, and constitute the said George Barne, knight and alderman of the said city of London, William Garrett, alderman of Our said city, Anthony Hussey and John Southecote, to be the first and present four consulls of the said fellowship and commonalty, by these presents, to have and enjoy the same offices of consulls to them, the said George Barne, William Garrett, Anthony Hussey and John Southecote, for term of one whole year next after the date of these Our letters patents.

And We do likewise make, ordain, and constitute the said Sir John Greshame, knight, Sir Andrew Judde, knight, Sir Thomas White, knight, Sir John Yorke, knight, Thomas Offeley the elder, Thomas Lodge, Henry Hewesone, John Hopkins, William Watson, William Clifton, Richard Poynter, Richard Chamberlayne, William Malloreay, Thomas Palley the elder, William Allen, Henry Becher, Geofferey Walkeden, Richard Fowkes, Rowland Heyward, George Heton, John Ellyote, John Sparkes, Blase Saunders and Myles Mordinge, to be the first and present twenty-four assistants to the said governour or governours, consulls, and to the said fellowship and commonalty, by these presents; to have and enjoy the same offices of assistants, to them the same, Sir John Greshame, Sir Andrew Judde, Sir Thomas White, Sir John Yorke, Thomas Offeley the elder, Thomas Lodge, Henry Hewesonne, John Hopkins, William Watson, Richard Poynter, Richard Chamberlayne, William Malloreay, Thomas Palley the elder, William Allen, Henry Becher, Geofferey Walkeden, Richard Fowkes, Rowland Heyward, George Heton, John Ellyote, John Sparkes, Blase Saunders, William Clifton and Myles Mordinge, for term of one whole year next after the date of these Our present letters patents.

And further, We, for Us, Our heirs and successors, as much as in Us is, will and grant, by these presents, unto the said governour, consulls, assistants, fellowship and commonalty of merchants adventurers aforesaid, and to their successors, that the said governour or governours, four consulls, and four-and-twenty assistants that now be by these presents nominated and appointed, or that hereafter, by the said fellowship and commonalty of merchants adventurers, or the more part of them which shall be then present, so from time to time to be chosen, so that there be fifteen at the least wholly agreed, whereof the said governour or governours, or one of them, and two of the said consulls, shall be three, and twelve the residue of the same number of fifteen, shall be of the said assistants; and in absence of such governour, that then three of the said consulls, and twelve of the said assistants at the least for the time being, shall and may have, use, and exercise full power and auctority to rule and govern all and singular the merchants of the said fellowship and commonalty, and to execute, and do full and speedy justice to them and every of them, in all their causes, differences, variances, controversies, quarrels and complaints, within any Our realms, dominions, or jurisdictions, amongst themselves, only moved and to be moved, touching their merchandizes, trafficks, and occupyings aforesaid, or the good order or rule of them, or any of them.

Also We, for Us, Our heirs and successors, so much as in Us is, do likewise by these presents grant that the said governour, consulls, assistants, fellowship, and commonalty, and their successors, shall and may have perpetual succession and common seale, which shall perpetually serve for the affairs and business of the said fellowship and commonalty; and that they and their successors shall and may be for ever able persons, and capax in the law for to purchase and possess in fee and perpetuity, and for term of life or lives, or for term of years or otherwise, lands, tenements, rents, reversions, and other possessions and hereditaments whatsoever they be, by the name of the governour, consulls, assistants, and fellowship and commonalty of the merchants' adventurers by seas and navigations for the discovery of lands, territories, isles, dominions, and seigniories unknown, and before the said last adventure or enterprise by sea not frequented, as before is specified, and by the same names shall and may lawfully alien, grant, let, and set the same, or any part thereof, to any person or persons able in the law to receive and take the same, so that they do not grant ne alien the same, or any part thereof, into mortmaine, without especial license of Us, Our heirs or successors, first had or obtained.

Also, We, for Us, Our heirs, and successors, have granted, and by these presents do grant, unto the said governour, consulls, assistants, fellowship, and commonalty of the foresaid merchants, and to their successors, that they and their successors shall and may lawfully purchase unto them and their successors for ever lands, tenements, and hereditaments whatsoever, of the clear yearly value of three score six pounds thirteen shillings and four-pence of lawful money of England, and not above, as well as of such lands, tenements, and hereditaments, as been holden or shall be holden of Us, Our heirs or successors, as of any other person or persons; the statutes provided against alienations into mortmayne, or any of them, or any article or clause in them, or any of them contained, or any other law or custom, statute or provision to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

And that they, by the name of the governours, consulls, fellowship and commonalty of merchants' adventurers, for the discovery of lands, territories, isles, dominions, and seigniories unknown by the seas and navigations, and not before their late adventure or enterprise by seas frequented as aforesaid, shall and may be able in the law to implead and to be impleaded, to answer and to be answered, to defend and to be defended, before whatsoever judge or justice, temporal or spiritual, or other persons whatsoever, in whatsoever court or courts, and in all actions, personal, real and mixt, and in every of them, and in all plaints of novell desisin, and also in all plaints, suits, quarrels, affairs, business, and demands whatsoever they be, touching and concerning the said fellowship and commonalty, and the affairs and business of the same, only, in as ample manner and form as any other corporation of this Our realm may do.

Moreover, We, for Us, Our heirs and successors, have given and granted, and by these presents do give and grant unto the said governour, consulls, assistants, fellowship and commonalty of merchants' adventurers aforesaid, and to their successors, that the same governour or governours, consulls, assistants, and their successors, in manner, form, and number afore rehearsed, shall have full power and auctority from time to time hereafter to make, ordain, establish, and erect all such statutes, acts, and ordinances for the government, good condition, and laudable rule of the said fellowship and commonalty of merchants' adventurers aforesaid, as to them shall be thought good, mete, convenient, and necessary; and that every such person or persons as shall fortune hereafter to be admitted into the said fellowship, commonalty, and corporation, shall from the time of his or their admittance be free of the same.

And also, We will and by these presents grant, for Us, Our heirs and successors, unto the said governour, consulls, assistants, and fellowship and commonalty of merchants' adventurers aforesaid, and to their successors, that the governour or governours, consulls, and assistants of the same, in manner, form, and number afore rehearsed, and their successors for the time being, shall and may have full power and auctority, by these presents, from time to time as to them shall seem good, to lymit, set, ordeyn, and put mulcts and penalties by fines, forfeitures, and imprisonments, or any of them, upon any offender of the said fellowship or commonalty, for any offence touching the said fellowship and commonalty; and also that all acts and ordinances, by them or their successors to be made, which they shall think not necessary or prejudicial to the said fellowship or commonalty, at all times to revoke, break, frustrate, adnichillate, repeal, and dissolve at their pleasure and liberty.

And further, We will that if any of the said fellowship and commonalty shall be fonde contrarious, rebelling, or disobedient to the said governour or governours, consulls, or to the said assistants for the time being, or to any statutes, acts, or ordinances by them made or to be made, that then the said governour or governours, consulls, and the said assistants, in manner, form, and number above specified, for the time being, shall and may, by vertue of these presents, mulct and punish all and every such offender or offenders as the quality of the offence requireth, according to their good discretions.

And further, We will that none of the said offender or offenders shall decline from the power of the said governour or governours, consulls and assistants, in manner, form, and number aforesaid, for the time being, so always that the said acts, statutes, and ordinances do only touch and concern the said governour or governours, consulls, assistants, and the said fellowship and commonalty of our before named merchants' adventurers, or the men of the same fellowship and commonalty, and none other; and so always that such their acts, statutes, and ordinances, be not against Our prerogative, laws, statutes, ne customs of Our realm and dominions, ne contrary to the several duty of any Our subjects towards Us, Our heirs and successors, ne contrary to any compacts, treaties, or leagues by Us or any Our progenitors heretofore had or made, or hereafter by Us, Our heirs or successors to be made, to or with any foreign prince or potentate, ne also to the prejudice of the corporation of the mayor, commonalty, and citizens of Our said city of London, ne to the prejudice of any person or persons, body politick or corporate, or incorporated, justly pretending, claiming or having any liberties, franchises, privileges, rights, or pre-heminence by vertue or pretext of any grant, gift, or letters patents, by Us or any Our progenitors heretofore given, granted, or made.

Moreover, We, for Us, Our heirs and successors, will and by these presents grant unto the said governour, consulls, assistants, fellowship in commonalty of Our merchants aforesaid, that the said governour or governours, consulls, and assistants, and their successors, for the time being, in manner, form, and number above rehearsed, shall have full power and aucturity to assign, constitute and ordain, one officer or divers officers, as well within Our foresaid city of London as also in any other place or places of this Our realm of England, or elsewhere within Our dominions, which officer or officers We wott to be named and called serjeant or serjeants to the fellowship and commonalty of the said members, and that the same serjeant or serjeants shall and may have full power and aucturity, by these presents, to take, receive, levy, and gather all manner fines, forfeitures, penalties and mulcts, of every person or persons of the said fellowship and commonalty, convict and that shall be convicted upon or for breaking of any statutes, acts and ordinances to be made by the said governour or governours, consulls, and assistants for the time being.

And further, We will, and also grant, for Us, Our heirs, and Our successors, that the said officer or officers shall have further power and aucturity, for default of payment, or for disobedience in this behalf, if need be, to set hands, and arrest as well the body and bodys, as the goods and chattells, of such offender or offenders and transgressors, in all and every place or places not franchised.

And if it shall fortune any such offender or offenders, their goods or chattells, or any part thereof, to be in any city, borough, town corporate or other place franchised or privileged, where the said officer or officers may not lawfully intromit or intermeddle, that they the mayor, sheriffs, bailiffs, or other head officers or ministers within every such city, borough, town corporate, place or places franchised, upon a precept to them, or any of them, to be directed from the governour or governours, consulls and assistants of the said fellowship, in number and form aforesaid, under the common seal of the said fellowship and commonalty for the time being, shall and may attach and arrest the body or bodys of such offender or offenders, and also to take and seize the goods and cattells of all and every such offender or offenders, being within any such said place or places franchised, and the same body or bodies, goods and cattells, and every part thereof, so attached and seized shall, according to the tenor and purpose of the said precept, return and deliver unto the said officer or officers of the aforesaid fellowship and commonalty.

And further, We will and grant for Us, Our heirs and successors, by these presents, that all and every such mayor, sheriff, bayliffe, and other head officers or ministers of any cities, borough, town corporate, or other place franchised, shall not be impeached, molested, vexed, or sued in any Our court or courts, for executing or putting in execution of any the said precept or precepts, but that they and every of them, upon sight hereof shall be from time to time and at all times thereby clerelie discharged of all and every suit, plaint, and action which at any time hereafter shall be commenced or pursued against them, or any of them, for executing and putting in execution any of the said precept or precepts.

And furthermore, We, of Our ample and abundant grace, mere motion, and certain knowledge, for Us, Our heirs and successors, as much as in Us is, have given and granted, and by these presents do give and grant, unto the said governour, consulls, assistants, fellowship, and commonalty of merchants' adventurers, and to their successors, and to the factor and factors, assign and assigns of every of them, full and free authority, liberty, faculty, license, and power to sail into all ports, regions, dominions, territories, lands, isles, islands, and coasts of the sea wheresoever, before their late adventure or enterprise unknown, or by Our merchants and subjects, by the seas not heretofore commonly frequented, under Our banners, standards, flaggs, and ensigns, with their ship, ships, barks, and pynnaces, and all other vessells of whatsoever portage, bulk, quantity or quality soever they may be, and with as many mariners and men as they will leade with them in such ship or ships and other vessels at their own and proper costs and expenses, for to traffick, discrive, discover, and find whatsoever isle, islands, countrys, regions, provinces, creeks, arms of the sea, rivers, and streams, as well of gentiles as of any other emperor, king, prince, governour, or lord whatsoever he or they shall be, and in whatsoever part of the world they be scituated, being before the said late adventure or enterprise unknown, and by Our merchants and subjects not commonly frequented; and to enter and land in the same, without any manner of denying, pain, penalty, or forfeiture to be had or taken by any Our laws, customs, or statutes, to Our use, or to the use of Our heirs or successors, for the same.

And, We have also granted, and by these presents, for Us, Our heirs and successors, do grant unto the said governour, consulls, assistants, fellowship, and commonalty, and to their successors, and to their factors and assigns, and to every of them, license for to rear, plant, erect, and fasten Our foresaid banners, standards, flaggs, and ensigns in whatsoever city, town, village, castle, isle, or mayne land which shall be by them newly found, without any the penalties, forfeitures, or dangers aforesaid, and that the said fellowship and commonalty, and their successors, factors, and assigns, and every of them, shall and may subdue, possess, and occupy all manner, cities, towns, isles, and mayne lands of infidelitie, which is or shall be by them, or any of them, newly found or discried as our vassals and subjects; and for to acquire and get the dominion, title, and jurisdiction of the same citys, towns, castles, villages, isles, and mayne lands, which shall be by them, or any of them, newly found, unto Us, Our heirs and successors for ever.

And furthermore, whereas by the voyage of Our subjects in this last year attempted by navigation towards the discovery and disclosure of unknown places, realms, islands, and dominions by seas not frequented, it hath pleased Almighty God to cause one of the three ships by them first set forth for the voyage and purpose above mentioned, named the Edward Boneaventure, to arrive, abide, and winter within the empire and dominion of the High and Mighty Prince Our Cousin and Brother Lord John Vastlevic, Emperor of all Russia, Vollode Marskey, Great Duke of Muskey, &c., &c., who, of his clemency, for Our love and zeal, did not only admit the captain and merchants of the said ship, Our subjects, into his protection and princely presence, but also received and entertained them very graciously and honourably, granting unto them by his letters, address unto Us, frank access into all his seigniories and dominions, with license freely to traffick in and out with his subjects in all kinds of merchandizes, with divers others gracious privileges, liberties, and immunities specified in his said letters under his signet.

Know ye, therefore, that We, of Our farther Royal favour and munificence, of Our mere motion, certain knowledge and especial grace, for Us, Our heirs and successors, have given and granted, and by these presents do give and grant, unto the same governour, consulls, assistants, fellowship and commonalty above named, and to their successors, as much as in Us is, that all the mayne lands, isles, ports, havens, creeks, and rivers of the same mighty Emperour of all Russia, Great Duke of Musky, &c., and all and singular other lands, dominions, territories, isles, ports, havens, creeks, rivers, arms of the sea, of all and every other emperor, king, prince, ruler, or governour, whatsoever he or they be, before the said late adventure or enterprise not known, or by our foresaid merchants and subjects, by the seas not commonly frequented, nor anye part or parcel thereof, and lying northwards, north-eastwards, or north-westwards, as is aforesaid by sea, shall not be visited, frequented, ne haunted by any Our subjects, other than of the said company and fellowship and their successors, without express license, agreement, and consent of the governour, consulls, and assistants of the said fellowship and commonalty, first above named, or the more part of them, in manner, form, and number aforesaid for the time being, upon pain of forfeiture and loss, as well of the ship and ships, with the appurtenances, as also of all the goods, merchandizes, and things, whatsoever they be of those Our subjects, being of the said fellowship and commonalty, which shall attempt or presume to sail to any of those places, which be, or hereafter shall happen to be found and trafficked unto; the one-half of the same forfeiture to be to the use of Us, Our heirs and successors, and the other half to be to the use of the said fellowship and commonalty.

And if it shall fortune any estranger or estrangers for to attempt to hurt, hinder, or endamage the said merchants, their factors, deputys, or assigns, or any of them, in sailing, going, or returning, at any time in the said adventure, or for to sail or trade to or from any those places, lands, or coasts, which by the said merchants, their factors, deputys, and assigns have been or shall be descried, discovered, and found or frequented, as well within the coasts and limits of gentility, as within the dominions and seigniories of the said mighty emperor and duke, and of all and every other emperor, king, prince, ruler, and governour, whatsoever he or they be, before the said late adventure or enterprize not known, or by our said merchants and subjects by the seas not commonly frequented, and lying northwards, north-eastwards, or north-westwards, as aforesaid; then We will and grant, and by these presents do license and authorize, for Us, Our heirs and successors, the said merchants, their factors, deputies, and assigns, and every of them, to do their best in their defence to resist the same, their enterprizes and attempts.

Willing therefore and strayghtly commanding and charging all and singular Our officers, mayors, sheriffs, escheators, constables, bayliffs, and all and singular other Our ministers, liegemen, and subjects whatsoever, to be aiding, favouring, helping, and assisting unto the said governour or governours, consulls, assistants, fellowship and commonalty, and to their successors, and to their deputys, factors, servants, and assigns, and to the deputys, factors, and assigns of every of them, in executing and enjoying the premises, as well on land as in the sea, from time to time and at all times, when you or any of you shall be thereunto required:

That express mention, &c., of the true yearly value, or of the certainty of the premises, or any of them, or any other gifts or grants by Us, or any Our progenitors of the said governour or governours, consulls, and assistants, fellowship and commonalty, before this time made, in these presents, is not made any statute, act, or ordinance, provision, or restraint thereof to the contrary made, ordained, or provided, or any other thing, cause, or matter whatsoever, in anywise notwithstanding.

In witness whereof We have caused these Our letters to be made patents. Witness Ourselves at Westminster, the six-and-twentieth day of February in the first and second years of Our reign.

Enclosure, No. 3.

AN ACT OF PARLIAMENT for the Corporation of Merchant Adventurers for Discovery of New Trades. Anno 1566.

WHEREAS divers very good subjects of this realm of England in the latter end of the reign of Our late right high and mighty Prince and Sovereign Lord King Edward the Sixth at the gracious encouragement and right good liking of the said King and by His Ma^{ties} liberal example did at their adventure and to their exceeding great charges for the glory of God the honour and increase of the revenues of the Crown and the common utility of the whole realm of England set forth three ships for the discovery by sea of lands isles territories dominions and seigniories unknown and by the subjects of the said

said late King before that not commonly by seas frequented and after that Almighty God had called to His mercy the said King who dyed before the finishing and sealing of his most ample and gracious letters of priviledges promised to the said subjects as well as in consideration of the said enterprise as for divers other respects It pleased our late Sovereign Lord and Ladye King Philip and Queen Mary at the humble suit of the said subjects to grant by these letters patents under the great seal of England bearing date at Westminster the six-and-twentieth day of February in the first and second years of the said reigns for the considerations mentioned in the said letters patents to the said subjects being especially named in the said letters patents and to their successors that they by the name of Merchant Adventurers of England for the discovery of lands territories isles dominions and seignories unknown and not before their late adventure or enterprise by seas or navigation commonly frequented should be from thenceforth one body and perpetual fellowship and commonalty of themselves both in deed and in name and that they the same fellowship and commonalty from thenceforth should and might have one or two governours four consuls and four-and-twenty assistants of the said fellowship and commonalty of merchant adventurers and that they by the name of the governour consuls assistants and fellowship and commonalty of merch^t adventurers for the discovery of lands territories isles and dominions and seignories unknown by the seas and navigations and not before the said late adventure or enterprise by seas frequented should or might be able in the law to implead and to be impleaded to answer and to be answered to defend and to be defended before whatsoever judge or justice temporal or spiritual or other person whatsoever in whatsoever court or courts and in all actions personal real or mixt and in every of them and in all plaints of novel disseisin and also in all plaints suits quarrels affairs business and demands whatsoever they be touching and concerning the said fellowship and commonalty and y^e affairs and business of the same only in as ample manner and form as any other corporation of this realm might do giving also and granting unto them by the said letters patents divers authorities powers jurisdictions preheminences franchises liberties and priviledges as by the said letters patents more at large may appear And amongst other things mentioned in the said letters patents whereas one of the three ships by the said fellowship before that time set forth for the voyage of discovery aforesaid named the Edw^d Bonaventure had arrived within the empire and dominion of the high and mighty Prince Lord John Wastelowiche Emperour of all Russia Vologhda Marsky Great Duke of Musky &c. who received the captain and merchants of the said ship very graciously granting unto them freely to traffick with his subjects in all kinds of merchandizes with divers other gracious priviledges and liberties

Therefore the said late King and Queen by the said late letters patents for them their heirs and successors did grant that all the main lands isles ports havens creeks and rivers of the said mighty Emperour of all Russia and Great Duke of Musky &c. and all and singular other lands dominions territories isles ports havens creeks rivers arms of the seas and all and every other king prince ruler or governour whatsoever he or they be before the said late adventure or enterprise not known or by the foresaid merchants and subjects of the said King and Queen by the seas not commonly frequented nor any part or parcel thereof and lying northwards north-eastwards or north-westwards as in the said letters patents is mentioned should not be visited frequented nor haunted by any of the subjects of the said late King and Queen other then of the said company and fellowship and their successors without express lycense agreement and consent of the governour consuls and assistants of the said fellowship and commonalty or the more part of them in manner and form as is expressed in the said letters patents upon pain of forfeiture and loss as well of the ship and ships with the appurtenances as also of all the goods merchandizes and things whatsoever they be of those the subjects of the said late King and Queen not being of the said fellowship and commonalty which should attempt or presume to sail to any of those places which then were or after should happen to be found and traffick'd unto the one-half of the said forfeiture to be to the use of the said fellowship and commonalty as by the same letters patents more plainly will appear

Sithence the making of which letters patents the said fellowship have to their great costs losses and expenses not only by their trading into the dominions of the said mighty Prince of Muscovia &c. found out convenient way to sail into the said dominions but also passing thro' the same and over the Caspian Sea have discovered very commodious trades in Armenia Media Hyrcania and Persia and other dominions in Asia Major hoping also by God's grace to discover the country of Catheia and other regions very convenient to be traded into by merchants of this realm for the great benefit and commodities of the same

And forasmuch as divers subjects of this realm understanding the premises and perceiving that now after the charge and travel aforesaid divers wares and merchandizes brought by the fellowship into this realm out of the dominions already discovered be within this realm of good estimation minding for the peculiar gain utterly to decay the trade of the said fellowship have contrary to the tenure of the same letters patents in great disorder traded into the dominions of the said mighty Prince of Russia &c. to the great detriment of this commonwealth

And for that the name by which the said fellowship is incorporated by the letters patents aforesaid is long and consisteth of very many words therefore be it enacted by the Queens most excellent Mat^e the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and the Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by authority of the same that the said fellowship company society and corporation made or created by the said letters patents shall at all time and times from henceforth be incorporated named and called only by the name of the Fellowship of the English Merchants for the Discovery of New Trades and by the same name for ever shall and may continue a perpetual body incorporate in deed and name and only by the same name from henceforth shall implead and to be impleaded answer and to be answered defend and to be defended sue and to be sued in whatsoever courts and places and shall and may by the same name be enabled to purchase have hold possess retain and enjoy whatsoever manors lands tenements rents reversions services and hereditaments not exceeding one hundred marks yearly not being holden of the Queens Maj^{ty} her heirs and successors by knights service in capite and all goods merchandizes chattels and other things whatsoever and shall and may by the same name make and do all things as any other corporation may do and also shall have and enjoy all and singular the liberties priviledges jurisdictions franchises preheminences powers authority's and things and may and do execute all other matters and things in the said letters patents mentioned or in any wise contained and that no part or parcel of the main lands isles ports havens roads creeks rivers arms of the sea of any emperour king prince ruler or governour whatsoever he or they be before the said first enterprise made by the merchants of the said corporation not known by the merchants and subjects of this realm or by them not commonly by seas frequented and lying from the city of London northwards and north-westwards or north-eastwards nor any part or parcel of the main lands dominions isles ports roads havens creeks arms of the seas that now be subject to the said high and mighty Prince Lord John Vastelwiche his heirs or successors or to the emperour chief governour or ruler of the said country of Russia for the time being his heirs or successors nor the country's of Armenia Major or Minor Media Hyrcania Persia or the Caspian Sea nor any part of them shall be sailed or traffick'd unto visited frequented or haunted by any pson being or that shall be a subject or denizen of this realm by themselves their factor or factors or any other to their use or commodity by any way or means directly or indirectly other than by order agreement consent or ratification of the governour consuls and assistants of the said fellowship and commonalty or the more part of them and their successors for the time being upon pain that every pson and psons offending in this behalf shall forfeit and loose ipso facto every such ship and ships with the appurtenances and all such goods merchandizes and things whatsoever as by any such pson or psons shall be by any ways or means directly or indirectly provided carried conducted brought or exchanged in at to through or from any of the places prohibited as is aforesaid contrary to the true intent of this statute the one moiety of all which forfeitures to be to our said Sovereign Lady the Queens Mat^e Her heirs and successors and the other moiety thereof to the said Fellowship of English Merch^t for Discovery of New Trades and their successors to be seized and taken wheresoever they they may be found by any person or persons to the use of our said Sovereign Lady Her heirs and successors and of the said Fellowship of English Merchants for Discovery of New Trades and of their successors or the same or the value thereof to be demanded or sued for by the Queens Highness Her heirs or successors or by the said Fellowship of English Merchants for Discovery of New Trades or their successors or their attorney or attorney's or by any person or persons being of the said Fellowship of English Merchants for the Discovery of New Trades or their successors in any court of record or in any other court or courts within this realm or elsewhere by action of debt action of detinue bill plaint information or otherwise in which suit no essoine protection wager of law or injunction shall be allowed for or on the behalf of the party or party's defendants

Provided always that whereas divers subjects of this realm being not of the fellowship aforesaid have been heretofore made adventurers to and from some of the places prohibited by the said letters patents that the said subjects their heirs executors administrators or assigns or any of them shall not be impeached impleaded troubled sued or molested for the same in their goods or persons in any manner of wise either by our said Sovereign Lady Her heirs and successors or the said fellowship or their successors

Provided also that it shall be lawful for any subject of this realm having presently any shipping goods wares or ready money remaining at or in any place of or within the dominions of the said mightye Prince of Russia or in any other of the places prohibited to be visited or traffick'd unto by this statute or the said letters patents to fetch bring and convey the same or cause the same to be brought or convey'd from thence by sea or otherwise before the Feast of St. John Baptist which shall be in the year of our Lord God 1568 any thing contained in this statute or in the said letters patents to the contrary notwithstanding

Provided also that it shall be lawful for any the subjects of this realm to sail to the port town territory or castle of Wardhouse and to any part of the coasts towns havens creeks rivers islands and lands of Norway for trade of fishing or any other trade there used by the subjects of this realm any thing in this statute to the contrary notwithstanding

And for the better maintenance of the navy and mariners of this realm be it provided and enacted that it shall not be lawful to the said fellowship and company nor to any of them to carry and transport or cause to be carried and transported any commodity of this realm to their new trade but only in English ships and to be sailed for the most part with English mariners nor also to bring into this realm nor into Flanders from their said new trade any merchandize or other commodities but in English ships and sailed for the most part with English mariners on pain of forfeit for every such offence Two hundred pounds whereof one moiety shall be to the Queens Ma^{tye} Her heirs and successors the other moiety to the head officers of any port town having any haven or harbour decay'd by what name soever they be incorporate to the reparation of such harbour that will sue for the same in any court of record by action bill plaint or information wherein no essoine protection or wager of law for the defendant shall be admitted or allow'd

Provided also and be it enacted that no manner of person or persons shall from henceforth carry or transport or cause to be carried or transported out of this realm of England any manner of clothes or kerseys into any of the parties where the said fellowship and society is priviledg'd to trade by this Act before the same clothes and kerseys shall be all dress'd and for the most part dy'd within this realm upon pain of forfeiture for every such cloth and kersey otherwise carried and transported five pounds the one-half thereof to the Queens Ma^{tye} Her heirs and successors the other half to the master and wardens of the clothworkers in the city of London for the time being by what name soever they be incorporate that will sue for the same

Provided also that whensoever the said society or company shall willingly withdraw and discontinue wholly by the space of three years in time of peace the discharging of their merchandize at the road of St. Nicholas Bay in Russia and do not discharge their said merchandize at some other port or road lying on that north coast of Russia or other territory now subject to the said mighty Prince of Russia &c. heretofore by the subjects of this realm not commonly frequented that then during the time of any such discontinuance and withdrawing as aforesaid it shall be lawful to all the subjects of this realm to trade to the Narve only in English bottoms anything in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding Provided also that every of the Queens Ma^{ties} subjects inhabiting within the city of York the towns of Newcastle-upon-Tyne Hull and of Boston having continually traded the course of merchandize by the space of ten years and which before the twenty-fifth day of December that shall be in Anno Dom. 1567 shall contribute join and put in stock to with and amongst the said company such sum and sums of money as one of the said company which hath throughly contributed to the said new trade from the year 1552 hath done and before the said five-and-twentieth day of Decem. 1567 shall do for the furniture of one ordinary full and entire portion or share and do in all things behave themselves as other of the said society be bound to do and hereafter shall be bound to do by the priviledges ordinances and statutes of the said company shall from the said five-and-twentieth day of Decem. 1567 be and be accounted free and as one of the said society and company and subject to the priviledges and ordinances and statutes of the said company reasonably made and to be made any thing in this present Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Enclosure, No. 5.

THE whole charge on a British vessel of 200 tons register, about the average tonnage, is 322 R^s.; bank notes, at $10\frac{1}{2}d.$ = 14*l.* 1*s.* 9*d.* Until the year 1817 one-third of the port charges were charged to the ship, and two-thirds were paid by the shippers of the outward cargo; in that year the method of fixing freights was altered; an allowance on the freight was made of "5 per cent. in lieu of all port charges and pilotage," and the whole amount of port charges was charged to the ship. This allowance of 5 per cent. on rates fluctuating as much as 50 per cent. not being however considered equitable, it has since become the custom to fix the rates at so much "in full," the port charges being charged to the ship.

This charge of 14*l.* 1*s.* 9*d.*, about 1*s.* 5*d.* per ton, made according to a reduced scale, adopted in 1832, is only about two-thirds of what all other European vessels pay, under different heads; the British merchants waiving their right to commission on homeward freight (to which they are entitled by the custom of the trade) in consideration of the Church Money included in the scale; and the resumption of their right would naturally follow the discontinuance of this charge, which is much less than the commission would amount to.

The maintenance in a respectable manner of our chapel has been hitherto felt to be, in some manner, a national object. It is the only authorised place of worship of the Established Church, and is open to all our countrymen, free of any charge for seats. It is furthermore considered by this government as the chapel of the "Queen's Ambassadors," who, with their suites, have proper accommodation free of expense to the Crown; and this is one of the grounds on which it has been left to the management of the committee of the factory, without interference from the authorities, under which the other foreign churches are placed.

The present system also affords the means of preventing the British poor from being a burthen to any but their countrymen, which would be creditable neither to the British residents at this place (St. Petersburg), nor to the national character. Of any change in the mode of providing for these objects it is impossible to foresee the consequences. The foreign houses who have hitherto readily paid the church money, might object to it when levied in any new shape.

Should it be discontinued, the merchants generally would resume the practice of charging commission on outward freight under the denomination of port charges (which at present is much lower than at any other port in the Baltic, and nearly 50 per cent. less than the charge of other European nations clearing at this port, as regards the items in which the merchants have an interest), and would eventually, instead of being reduced, most probably be considerably increased.

UNITY JOINT STOCK MUTUAL BANKING ASSOCIATION.

RETURN to an Order of the Honourable The House of Commons, dated 15 July 1856 ;—for,

COPY “of any CASES and OPINIONS laid before the Board of Trade, with reference to the Application for a ROYAL CHARTER for the Incorporation of the UNITY JOINT STOCK MUTUAL BANKING ASSOCIATION.”

Board of Trade, }
July 1856. }

JAMES BOOTH.

C A S E.

It is proposed to establish a joint stock bank, to be called “The Unity Joint Stock Mutual Banking Association,” under the 7th & 8th Vict. c. 113.

It is proposed to pay to the customers interest equal to one-half of the profits of the bank, not as profits, but as interest. The draft deed contains the following clauses :—

“That the Directors may, if they think fit, apply such proportion as they may think requisite of the net profits of the Association, for forming and maintaining a reserved surplus fund; and such reserved surplus fund is hereby declared to be a reserved fund of the capital of the Association, to meet and provide against any extraordinary demands upon, or contingencies happening to, the Association, or any losses it may sustain, as also a reserved fund of profits for the purpose of supplying, from time to time, any deficiency which may arise in the profits of any year, and of preventing, as far as may be, a fluctuation in the amount of the dividend of successive years; and the said reserved surplus fund may be applied for the several purposes aforesaid by the Directors in their absolute discretion; and the said fund shall, on the dissolution of the Association, belong to and be divided amongst the persons then entitled to the capital of the Association, in the same shares as they shall be entitled to such capital.”

(74.) “That it shall be lawful for the Directors to allow and pay to the customers of the Association, having current accounts with the Association, interest on the amount, from time to time, of their respective accounts, after the following rates; (that is to say), To those customers, the balance or amount of whose current accounts shall not at any time fall below the sum of 300*L.*, or such other sum as shall be for the time being fixed on or limited by the Directors of the Association, interest after the rate of 2*l.* per centum per annum; and to those customers the balance or amount of whose current accounts shall fall below the sum of 300*L.*, or such other sum to be so fixed on or limited by the Directors as aforesaid, but shall not at any time fall below the sum of 100*L.*, or such other sum as shall for the time being be fixed on or limited by the Directors, interest after the rate of 1*l.* per centum per annum.”

“That it shall be lawful for the Directors to allow and pay to the customers of the Association, having deposit accounts with the Association, interest on the amount, from time to time, of their respective accounts, after such rate as the Directors shall, from time to time, deem fit.”

“That after making due provision for such reserved surplus fund and interest, as aforesaid, and subject thereto respectively, the Directors shall, on the day of _____ in each and every year, or within one calendar month thereafter, ascertain the clear net profits which shall have accrued to the Association for the then last preceding year.”

(77.) "That the Directors shall, within two calendar months after the day of _____ in each year, pay, or cause to be paid, out of the funds of the Association, to each customer of the Association, whose cash balance shall not, at any time during the last preceding year, have ever fallen below the sum of £_____, and who shall not have declined to accept the additional interest next hereinafter provided, such sum for interest on the average amount of his cash balances during such last preceding year (in addition to the interest provided for in the _____ and _____ clauses of these presents) as shall bear the same proportion to one equal half part of the net profits so ascertained, as herein provided, as his said average amount shall bear to the aggregate average amounts of the cash balances of all the said customers, during such last preceding year: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to or in fact render it compulsory on such customers to accept such additional interest as last aforesaid; and any customer may, on, previously, or subsequently to his opening an account with the Association, elect whether or not he will accept such additional interest; and provided also that the said customers of the Association shall not be considered, or in fact be partners in the said Association, nor in any manner interested in the capital or joint stock, or the profits thereof, or entitled to any account thereof respectively, nor be liable for any of the debts, losses, or engagements of the said Association; but shall only be creditors of the said Association, in respect of their several cash balances for the time being; and such interest thereon as aforesaid, and the report or statement of the amount of such interest, from time to time made by the Directors, for the time being, of the Association, shall be binding and conclusive on the customers."

"Previously to the annual general meeting of the Association to be held in the year 1856, as herein provided, in case the Directors shall determine to declare a dividend for the year or period then expired; and previously to the annual meeting of the Association to be held in the next and every subsequent year during the continuance of the Association, the Directors shall determine upon such dividend, out of the net profits of the Association, as they in their judgment shall think fit; and at every such annual meeting the Directors shall announce to the shareholders the dividend which they shall have determined upon."

Clause empowering Directors to pay dividends yearly or half-yearly.

The 7th & 8th Vict., cap. 113, sect. 6, provides for the incorporation of joint stock banks by letters patent. The 7th section enacts, that notwithstanding such incorporation, the shareholders for the time being, and those who shall have been shareholders, their executors, administrators, successors, and assigns, shall continue liable for all the dealings, covenants, and undertakings of the Association, as fully as if the said Association were not incorporated.

The 48th section declares that banking companies shall be deemed trading companies.

It is the custom with most joint stock banks to allow their customers interest on the minimum balance of their current monthly accounts, provided the same do not fall below a certain specified sum, which it is said does not in any way render the customers liable as partners. It is suggested that the Unity Banking Association, in proposing to give their customers, in addition to interest on their minimum monthly balances, an annual interest on their minimum monthly, half-yearly, or quarterly balances, in the manner proposed to be done by the above clauses, will render the customers liable as partners for the dealings and undertakings of the Association. The question, therefore, is one of importance, as the distinction between the Unity Mutual Banking Association and all other banks is, that it introduces to banking operations a mutuality of interest between the shareholders and customers, in a somewhat similar way as assurance offices have for many years, and with so much success, a mutuality of interest between the shareholders and assurers, by allowing the latter bonuses out of the profits which would otherwise belong wholly to the shareholders.

The Unity Banking Association believes that this mutuality of interest can be effected without rendering the customers liable as partners; and they are in fact advised by Mr. Willes, of the Common Law Bar, that the receipt by a customer, in

in the way proposed by the above clause of interest, according to his balance, does not directly or indirectly render such customers liable as partners.

Your attention is directed to the recent cases, showing that an interest proportioned to profits does not necessarily render the recipient liable as a partner.

As the customers have not any voice in the management of the Association's affairs, it would appear unreasonable to render them liable. On the other hand, it seems politic to give them an interest in the success of the business, because they are the source from which all profits must be derived.

On this, as above drawn, the Solicitor-general, and Mr. W. W. Cooper, of the Equity Bar, have advised as follows :

OPINIONS.

1. "It appears to us to be a conclusion warranted by the existing state of the decisions on the subject of partnership, that the receipt by a customer in the manner proposed, of annual or half-yearly interest on his minimum or other balances for the preceding year, will not render such customer, either directly or indirectly, liable as a partner in the bank.

2. "We have thought it advisable to alter the collocation of the proposed clauses, in order to define more clearly the intention that the interest is to be paid out of the general funds of the Association and not out of profits; but we do not think that the clauses require to be altered or amended in any other respect.

"Lincoln's Inn, 13 May 1855."

The following is also the opinion of Mr. Willes and Mr. William Wellington Cooper thereon :

1. "In our opinion, the receipt by a customer in the way proposed by the above clauses, taken from the deed of settlement of an annual or half-yearly interest on his minimum or other balance for the preceding year, does not render such customer either directly or indirectly liable as a partner in the bank.

2. "We cannot suggest any amendment of the above clauses.

3. "The third question does not arise.

James Willes."*

"Lincoln's Inn, 23 April 1855."

With a view to put the question of partnership still further beyond doubt, the 74th and 77th clauses have been with that view slightly altered; they now stand in the draft deed as follows :

74th. "That it shall be lawful for the Directors to allow and pay to the customers of the Association, having current accounts with the Association, such interest on their respective current accounts as the Directors shall from time to time deem fit; and the Directors shall from time to time decide the balances or amounts of current accounts on which interest shall from time to time be paid."

77th. "That the Directors shall in each year pay, or cause to be paid, out of the funds of the Association, to each customer of the Association, whose cash balances shall not, at any time during the last preceding year, have ever fallen below such sum as shall be, for the time being, fixed on or limited by the Directors, and who shall not have declined to accept it, the additional interest next hereinafter provided; that is to say, such sum for interest on the average amount of his cash balances during such last preceding year (in addition to the interest provided for in the 74th and 75th clauses of these presents) as shall bear the same proportion to one equal half part of the net profits so ascertained, as therein provided, as his said average amount shall bear to the aggregate average amounts of the cash balances of all the said customers during such last preceding year: Provided always, that the Directors shall have power, and are hereby authorised, in deciding on the amount or balances which shall be entitled to such additional interest as last aforesaid, to reject fractional parts of 100*l.*, if they shall think fit; and provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to or in fact render it compulsory on such customers to accept such additional interest as last aforesaid; and any customer may, on previously or subsequently to his opening an account with the Association, elect whether or not he will accept such additional interest; and provided also that the customers of the Association shall not be considered, or in fact be partners in the said Association, or in any manner interested in the capital or joint stock, or the profits thereof, or entitled to any account thereof respectively, nor be liable for any of the debts, losses, or engagements of the said Association, but shall only be creditors of the said Association in respect of their several cash balances for the time being, and such interest thereon as aforesaid; and the report or statement of the amount of such interest from time to time made by the Directors, for the time being, of the Association, shall be binding and conclusive on the said customers."

You are requested to advise the proposed Unity Banking Association,—

1. Whether the receipt by a customer, in the way proposed by the above clauses, taken from the Draft Deed of Settlement of the Unity Joint Stock Mutual Banking Association, of an annual or half-yearly interest on his minimum or any other balance for the preceding year, renders such customer, either directly or indirectly, liable as a partner in the bank?

2. Whether the above clauses can be altered or amended in any way, so as more effectually to carry out the intentions of the promoters of the Unity Banking Association, to give to the customers an interest proportioned to a moiety of the ascertained profits, without rendering the customers liable as partners?

3. Whether, if you are of opinion that the above clauses do not carry out the intention of the promoters, the intention can be carried out in any and what other way?

OPINION.

"After much consideration of this Case, we are of opinion that, although the general rule of law is, that any participation in the profits of a concern will constitute a person so participating a partner, yet that, as the authorities fully establish that a contract for service with a trader, where no partnership is intended to be established, although the remuneration may be made contingent upon and to be paid out of profits, will nevertheless form an exception to the general rule, the same principle will, by analogy, apply to the present case, and therefore a loan or deposit, which in point of law is a loan, the interest on which, or any portion thereof, is to be contingent upon or paid out of interest, will, in like manner, fall within the exception. We are of opinion, therefore, that no partnership will be constituted under the circumstances stated.

"Temple, 22 December 1855."

OPINION of Mr. Bramwell and Mr. Wm. Wellington Cooper on the same Case.

1. "We entirely concur in the opinions already expressed by Mr. Justice Willes and the Solicitor-general; and are of opinion that the receipt by a customer in the way proposed, of an annual or half-yearly interest on his minimum, or any other balance for the preceding year, does not render such customer, either directly or indirectly, liable as a partner in the bank.

2. "We are of opinion that the above clauses cannot be altered or amended, in any way, so as more effectually to carry out the intentions of the Promoters of the Unity Banking Association."

The salaries of Officers, payments to Engineers, Solicitors, and Surveyors are in the Accounts filed with the Clerk of the Peace, in almost every instance, included under the head of Incidental Expenses. Such items are, in this Return, included under the head of General Maintenance and Repairs, although some portion of them would, no doubt, be connected with improvements, but it is impossible to divide them.

Note.—The foregoing Statement, embracing a portion only of the information required by the Honourable House, is respectfully submitted as the best Return that can be made to their Order. In respect to the Official Value, whether of Imports or of Exports, it is wholly defective; this Value, which is obtained by calculation from certain fixed rates applied to the quantities of the various commodities, being computed only on the Importations and Exportations of the kingdom at large. The Declared Value of British and Irish Produce and Manufactures Exported, being collected from the merchants' entries, is ascertainable, for each Port individually, and is accordingly exhibited.

Of the Trade carried on under Coasting Regulations, between Port and Port of the United Kingdom, there is no official record.
